

GRAND GARDENS SUBDIVISION

AT CLARENCEVILLE

The new plat is now on sale and from all appearances will soon be all closed out as there is nothing about the Grand River road to compare with it in location, quality of soil or general desirability for a home site.

Directly on the car line and the new cement road, with stores, school and churches close at hand and located in a desirable neighborhood it has no equal as a place for a home.

These lots are cut into

and the initial price is so low that they ought to be snapped up quickly. The price will be advanced as the lots are sold and it is advisable to make an early selection on that account. Prices range from

and the terms are made easy. $50 gets a contract when the balance can be paid monthly as the buyer desires. A $10 deposit will secure your choice of lot and when $50 is paid the contract is issued.

Don't make the usual mistake of neglecting this opportunity until the prices advance. Pick your lot now and get the benefit of the advance which is sure to come in a very short time. As an this chance is unequalled for these lots will double in value within two years.

Salesmen are at work on this subdivision in Detroit, but people in this locality can make first choice by making early application.

Salesmen will be on the ground Sundays, but plats can be seen at the Enterprise office in Farmington or the Record office in Redford on any day. An information can be had at either place of

C. E. RAMSEY, Local Agent

or by application to

E. P. Waldron, one of the owners of the Grand Gardens subdivision at Clarenceville was in town a few days ago in consultation with C. E. Ramsey, who is the local agent for the property.

The Grand Lawn robbers probably paid their last visit to Redford, for some time at least, on Wednesday when they were brought out to hear the testimony of the witnesses read as the stenographer had it transcribed. There were the usual number of big automobiles filled with court officials and lawyers in addition to

to the prisoners and the crowd again enjoyed the excitement.

George Jenks keeps right on selling farm machinery and tools just as though it was a seasonal thing to do.

The Drain farm lying north of Five Points has been sold to a brother of Frank Brady.

Milton Grace came out second best when he disputed the right of way with a street car in the city one day last week. He did not give up until he was pushed along about half a block and the body of his automobile was badly wrecked while he received some bruises on the side of the head. While the body of the car was wrecked and the top damaged the running gear was found to be intact.

The Redford Auto Sales Co. is the name of a new concern just being organized in Redford and its name implies will deal in automobiles. The company has already secured the selling agency for this territory of the Ford automobile and is already booking orders for the machines.

The company is composed of Messrs. J. E. Teckemeyer, I. G. Clark, T. Silks and N. E. Cooper and with them will be associated Burgess & Emmons, the hardware dealers.

The first four named gentlemen are the parties who recently purchased the five lots on Grand River near the grave and on which the old hotel building stands and will at once begin the construction of a garage. The structure will have a frontage of 50 feet and a depth of 60 feet, with plans for adding to the depth in the near future. The building will be of cement block construction and will be fitted with all modern appliances for the repairing of automobiles. The concern will also handle all automobile accessories. As the company is composed of young men of integrity, coupled with business experience and good judgment there is every reason to expect a successful future for the institution.

Washington Theatre—Detroit

"What's the name of this street?" asked Lovey Mary of a small bare-footed boy.

"Tain't no street," answers the little fellow, "this here's the cabbage patch."

And such is Lovey Mary's and Little Tommy's introduction to the locale of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," that rich American play which is to be the Christmas week attraction at the Washington Theatre, Detroit.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" was dramatized by Mrs. Anne Crawford Flexner from the stories, "Mrs. Wiggs and Lovey Mary," written by Alice Regan Rice, and they are founded upon absolute fact for the Cabbage Patch does really exist and is located on the outskirts of Louisville, Ky.

The play opens in Mrs. Wiggs' cottage with the wedding of Miss Hazy and Mr. Stubbins, who has been provided by a matrimonial agency. There isn't a quiet moment in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and you are sure to love this dear, simple hearted soul.

The Washington players will give a matinee Christmas day at 3:00 p. m. Other matinees as usual on Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday.
