Griffin Says Senate Staff Probing Newspopers The freshman Republican aprece for a fried chicken dimerst in the first staff probing in the first staff probi

GRIFFN REPORTED that field men from Sen, John McClellan's Investigations Sub-committee are in Detroit to gather information about last summer's riots, and that they are ilkely to probe the newspaper strike, too, because that matter is on the subcommittee's agentate.

The essence of Criffin's question is whether it's true tee's agentia.

The essence of Griffin's question is whether it's true that some members of the Teamsters, who struck the Teamsters, who struck the Teamsters, who struck the Teamsters, it, had been involved in planning and operating the three so-called "strike" or "interim" daily papers that published for some weeks after the big dailies closed down.

SEN. ROBERT GRIFFIN (left) exchanged speech notes with 19th District Congressman Jack McDonald at last week's Lincoln Day banquet in Oakland County.

Griffin and another program speaker, 19th District Congressman Jack McDonald, hit the same theme-the charge that the Johnson Administration isn't telling the truth about Vietnam and other foreign relations problems.

lations problems.

In the interview about the mewspaper strike, Griffin_said:

"THE CONCERN grows out of charges that were made in a national magazine alleging that certain elements of the Teamsjers union had, before the sfrike, planned and later engaged in the operation of the strike rapers for profit.

"The question I raise is whether there's a conflict of interest within the union.

"Here you have some elements of the local union who have a reason for prolocating the strike rather than sattling in "The questions that should have a reason for prolocating the strike rather than sattling in "The questions that should have a reason for prolocating the strike rather than sattling the strike restrict that the should have a reason for prolocating the strike rather than sattling the prolocating that the prolocating the prolocating that the pr

"AT MY REQUEST—alter of criffin said.

Is THE DETROIT newspaper Strike really in the realm of the Senate Permanent Investigating Sub-committee, has put the charges concerning the newspaper strike on the senate of the sub-committee.

"I can tell that the staff of that sub-committee from my office and from other offices, and I'm also aware that investigators from the McDellan sub-committee are in Detroit now, primarily sent here to investigate the ricks; but being the here and having this on the laterstate commerce (clause of the U.S. Constitution), so I have no doubt that there's a legitimate federal interest here," Griffin said,
