

Brazil Expells Two Unions For 'Illegal Functions'

LONDONERS in England will soon be able to plug in—electrically—to a load of British garbage. A $44-million incinerator under construction in London will devour 1,600 tons of garbage a day and turn it into light and heat for 25,000 homes.

BRITAIN moved into perpetual summer time on the weekend. The ritual of switching clocks forward an hour each pelled from Brazil on grounds that they were "functioning illegally." The unions are the International Federation of Petroleum and Chemical Workers (AFI-CIO) and the International Chemical and General Workers

Congo MD To Speak

Dr. Harry Ziemer, who was caught in the Republic of Congo uprising in 1964, will speak at the meeting of the Dearborn-Plymouth Christian Women's Club Thursday, Feb. 22.

The 7:30 p.m. meeting at a Plymouth restaurant will feature a "Sweethearts Night" theme, with many women bringing their husbands as special guests, possibly to "expose" them to the many furs and fashions that will be modeled.

Reservations must be made by noon, Tuesday, Feb. 20, with Mrs. Paul Van Schepen of Dearborn, 563-9549; Mrs. A. E. Van Grem of Plymouth, 453-6222; or Mrs. George Okins of Garden City, 425-2299.

St Dunstan Card Party Set

St. Dunstan's Rosary Altar Society will have a "Mardi Gras" card party at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 23, in the Polish Hall, 27610 Beck Rd., Garden City.

Tickets may be obtained by calling chairmen Mrs. Stanley Mueck, 427-8591, or Mrs. Richard Prister, 274-0969.

Catholic Alumni To Sponsor Dance

The Catholic Alumni Club of Detroit, a social club for single Catholics who are college graduates, will sponsor a "Mardi Gras" dance Friday, Feb. 23, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Danish Hall, 22711 Grand River, near Telegraph.

Tickets can be purchased at the door.
