At Stevenson High

EDITOR:
After reading two letters that appeared in your column I wish to exist in replying to both to exist in replying to both experience and the manufacture of them that the adult society, the parent in particular, is not ignorant of the existing problems at Stevenson.

Many of us have tried designated the administration at the school only to be met with rebuffs.

only to be met with rebuilts or told we are at the school Praise For Maskin or tool we are at the school too much.

We have complained to the elected board members, we have conversed with the Youth Bureau of the Police Department only to find out that Stevenson ranks first in problems of delinquency such as vandalor demiquency such as vandal-ism and skipping and assault, but they too have run up against little cooperation with all concerned.

Check your tax bills and see for yourselves the amount of money that is given for education and the much, much smaller amount allocated to city for operating a community the size of Livonia, My figures sound out the 57 per cent schools, the size of Livonia, my figures round out to 67 per cent schools, 15 per cent city and 18 per cent county. We are paying for top quality education but are we getting it is a moot question.

With this existing modular system at Stevenson the students have too much free time on their hands and too little supervision.

If you were able to check a you were some to mee's the records it might be increasing to know the drawn trate at Sevend drop out. He reason was "I was bored, four hours of free time in the middle of the day on a couple of days."

I know of another student who goes to school for 15 minutes in the morning and then sneaks out until 11 when, he must return for class. Another student had 11 hours of study hall a week and he has a high. If the student had 11 hours of study hall a week and he has a high. G. Figures of a chual instruction a week. I certainly don't call that college preparation. Active minds in active bodies looking for action, but what kind? Even a, handful of students tried to take the job upon themselves that would normally belong to the administration and staff but it was more than they could a student stried to take the job upon themselves that would normally belong to the administration and staff but it was more than they could a student a student of the staff of t

CTML is a letter to George Maskin, Observer Sports Edlook of the Competition of the Com school. The physical education program, particularly varsity and junior varsity, athletic competition, provides an oppor-tunity for extra-curricular in-volvement to a great number of students beyond actual team of students beyond actual team membership. Cheerleaders, baton twirl-ers, musicians, student man-agers, and assistant trainers are only a few of the students who enjoy the fringe benefits of varsity sports, Pep assem-bles and bus trips are other "fringe benefits" of these pro-grams.

A CONCERNED PARENT Shocked By Moelke

I haven't been a resident, long, two years by the calendar, but I am proud of Litonda's growth. I felt it was all we'd been looking for in a city. What a shock to see how little equality Livonia offers its residents; i've seen it in enough ways to write a little book, but Mayor Moelke, a man I once supported, has been the greatest shock.

The mayor seeps had been the greatest shock on the greatest shock on the company of the same of the same

Tell me, what looks worse:
the official who breaks the law and pays his debt, or the official who "fixes" it? Livonia sure made the news; thanks for the publicity, Mayor.
