

Farmington Socially Speaking

Kathy Ziska, GR. 4-7261

What is it like to be photographed by the internationally famous photographer, Tony Stone? Will reserve my judgment until I see the "proof of the pudding". Someone that can give you the answer now, is Gladys King. You might ask her too, what the occasion was!

It's the King family of Martinehead in Farmington. Recognition is due to the 15-year old-son of John and Gladys King. It's a "like father, like son" type of thing. Guy King, out for one of the school sports events at Oak Lady of Sorrows High School, ended up with a 234 game in bowling. His average is 166. Guy's dad took home the jack pot or pot of gold last week at Bel Aire Lanes with a 289. His average is 205.

THE FRANKLIN Knolls Women's Club is holding its fund raising, Fashion Show Luncheon at the new Raleigh House. Proceeds will go to Camp Oakland. If you are, as I was, under the impression that Camp Oakland is a summer-time escape, let's learn together. Camp Oakland is a home-type environment for underprivileged children, children of broken homes and children without homes type thing.

Back to the luncheon, they have nicely interpreted the international theme. Under the direction of Jessie Moretto, each table will be favored with a doll, representing one country or another. These will end up as table prizes for the guests.

To Review School Insurance

Citizens for Farmington Schools, Inc., will hold their annual meeting Tuesday, Feb. 27, in the library of Farmington Junior High School, 33000 Thomas St., Farmington.

Purpose of the meeting is for an election of the board of directors and to review with the insurance company the voluntary group accident insurance plan for the school year 1968-69 for students, teachers and other employees of the school district.

This non-profit organization consists of one representative from each school in the Farmington School District, one member representing the Farmington PTA Council, an assistant superintendent, the athletic director, one principal, one Farmington district teacher and an attorney or member of the Farmington Board of Education.

Wind Fans 10 Fires In Area

The high winds which prevailed last weekend brought a rash of grass fires to Farmington Township, and brought a warning from authorities against burning trash outdoors in unprotected areas.

Ten separate outbreaks were reported in the township last Friday, Saturday and Sunday when winds of 20 to 30 miles an hour consistently whipped southeastern Michigan.

Police Chief Irving Yakes urged residents to exercise greater caution in the burning of refuse, and pointed to the fact that the absence of a snow blanket has increased the chance of a fire getting out of control.

We Show You Cost - Beforehand

Let's Speak Frankly

At McCabe's we not only help arrange details of the service, but are careful to explain beforehand what the final cost will be.

We also explain beforehand the many items of personal service covered by the one standard charge. While the cost of a funeral at McCabe's is often lower than you'd think, we feel the family has a right to all facts beforehand.

THOSE HILL and Dale Garden Club Women of Farmington are coming through again with the blue ribbons at the Cobo Hall Home and Garden Show. "Wind in the Pines" is the title of the category that brought Pauline Rosinski a blue ribbon and Grace Bulman a red ribbon. Gladys King received a blue ribbon for her interpretation of "Blue Flags" -- an arrangement of blue flowers in a copper container. The spring breakfast table titled "Spring Green" won Ruth Simmons a blue ribbon and Nina Lynn's first attempt at table exhibition, a fourth or white ribbon.

The miniature arrangements received recognition with ribbons from our Farmington area with Joy Thomas receiving a blue ribbon in the three-inch and Theda Thayer a red ribbon. In the five-inch miniatures, Pauline Rosinski received a blue ribbon and Theda Thayer a yellow ribbon. The miniature class was titled "Delicate Flora".

A bit amusing was the conversation I had with Mrs. Melvin (Margie) H. Sachs, an area resident about her recent trip to the Grand Bahama Islands. Evidently she was not impressed and she felt that since the Bahamas were so close to the mainland of Florida, the least they could do was to fly in bags! Thought I'd throw that in as food for thought.

Priemer Credits Lee Peel

Robln Priemer, 18, of 22118 Tredwell, Farmington, who is enjoying literary success in a journalism course at Northwood Institute, credits it all to an English class he took from Lee S. Peel at Farmington High.

According to a news release from Northwood, the budding author wasn't interested in very much until Peel's creative writing course stimulated him to go on.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Priemer, the Farmington student has now been chosen to edit Northwood's literary magazine, "Thoughts Out of Season."

He was chosen out of the entire student body as a chief contributor because of his special creative talent.

The magazine plans to publish a manuscript of short stories Priemer wrote for Peel's class.

He enrolled in the journalism curriculum at Northwood because he considered it would offer more creativity and discipline. He is a reporter for "The Northwood Times" and plans to go into journalism, but his ultimate goal is fiction writing.
