CPA Elected

David C. Emmett, 23070 Hayes, Farmington, was awarded a master of science degree in engineering at the midyear commencement at the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Richard P. Mazurek, 23040 Ontaga, Farmington, has been elected a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He is associated with the Detroit office of the accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co.

INTERESTED ON-LOOKERS — Mrs. Alice Crossette (left rear), home economics teacher at Dunckel Junior High, took her 9th grade class to Farmer Jack's Supermarket at 12 Mile and Farmington Rds. so that the girls could learn firsthand about food buying. The group pays close attention as one of the store personnel packages meat. The girls have just completed a unit on food buying in their classroom work.

2 Compete To Enter Academies

Two Observerland high school seniors have been nominated by Sen. Robert P. Griffin to compete for appointment to service academies for the academic year beginning July, 1968.

The candidates were selected from almost 400 applicants on the basis of academic records, extra-curricular activities, character and leadership potential.

The two are Stephen G. Harshfield, 21601 Collingham, Farmington, who will compete to enter West Point, and James W. McKinnel, 25501 Ramsey St., Franklin, who will compete to enter the Merchant Marine Academy.
