

DAN FAIR -- The boy in the center learned about photography in the Boy Scouts, so he and some fellow sixth graders at Cloverdale School set up a darkroom in a supply closet at the school, all with the permission of teacher, Mrs. Sharon Maher. The other boys, left and right, are Brad Rainey and Gary Van Wagner. All the budding sharpshooters are 11 years old.

Children Blamed For Fire

A fire in the new construction area at the north side of Farmington High School was quickly extinguished by city fire fighters Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24, and authorities said it likely was started by children playing in the area. Smoke pouring from the back of the construction zone attracted the attention of officers in a passing police cruiser at 2:40 p.m., and a fire crew of five men responded to the call.

Other than smoke in the halls of the main high school building, no major damage was reported from the blaze.

It just kind of slipped me, when the column was going together, I didn't realize that this would be "Awards Week for Farmington."

That's the way it turned out. From your Farmington supporters, we are very proud of each and everyone of you. Congratulations to one and all of you award winners.

Those clever Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington women did it again! They've acquired the much coveted Chrysler trophy and brought it home to Farmington. The Chrysler Trophy is a permanent collection of the awards for the club, which, having acquired it three consecutive years in a row, has it, to keep permanently.

Club has acquired the prized trophy. However, it will take one more year of "most blue ribbons in the show" to keep it permanently. Next year will be an exciting season.

Individual effort in the show for having received the highest points in blue ribbons in the Michigan Horticulture Society Garden Club Competition in Cobo Hall was achieved by Mrs. Pauline Rosinski, of Bannockburn. She received a trophy award, presented by the V.R. DePetris Florists of Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Rosinski is also a member of the Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington.

Just back from London, Scotland, Switzerland, Copenhagen, Finland and Paris are William and Sarah Hamcke, of Castle-Religh. William was there on business for the Ford Motor Credit Co., while Sarah went along to keep him company and enjoy the sights.
