

Seminary Head To Lecture

Dr. John F. Walvoord, president of Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, Texas, will present a talk at Detroit Bible College on "Living in Days of Crisis" March 9 at 10:45 a.m. The public is invited to attend. A widely-known Christian educator and author, Dr. Walvoord is recognized as one of the country's leading conservative evangelical theologians.

Prior to being named to his present post in 1957, Dr. Walvoord was registrar and professor of systematic theology at the seminary. A member of the Independent Fundamental Churches of America, he also served as pastor in Ft. Worth, Texas, for nearly 20 years.

During 1967, some 16,000 Michigan State University students were employed by MSU in temporary or part-time jobs, and they earned more than $4.2 million.

Although each play deals with a contemporary situation, the background and theme of the plays are found in the seven words of Christ from the Gospels. Each play will be followed by a sermon in which Pastor Dale Krueger will interpret the play, and by a celebration of the Lord's Supper.

The first chancel drama will be presented on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 28. It is entitled "The Power That Doesn't Falter." The community is invited to join All Saints Players and congregation in its Lenten observance.

Livonia Church Women Observe Prayer Day

The World Day of Prayer is held annually on the first Friday in Lent. On this day people are brought together across denominational, racial, national and cultural boundaries to pray for the needs of the world and to make an offering toward the church's mission around the world.

During the past five years WDP services have been held in at least 126 countries, a list which begins with Aden and ends with Zambia. The author of this year's service is Mrs. Rabih Selvaratnam of Ceylon, chairman of the Asian Church Women's Conference.

ST. KENNETH'S DEDICATION — Father James A. Machak pastor of the new church welcomes Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit and Father Francis Byrne of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church.

1,000 Attend St. Kenneth Dedication

St. Kenneth's Catholic Church, Plymouth, was formally dedicated last Friday evening before a congregation of more than 1,000 persons.

Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit, the Rev. Francis Byrne, of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Plymouth, and the Rev. James A. Machak, pastor of the new church, officiating in a consecrated mass. Priests from St. John's Seminary and area parishes marched down the aisle of the new church, flanked by the Fourth Degree of Assembly of Knights of Columbus, Wayne, in full dress uniform.

Presentation of a Bible, by the Rev. David M. Strang of the Epiphany Lutheran Church on behalf of his neighboring congregation evidenced the growing ecumenical movement in the area. The Rev. Strang also took part in the ceremonies.

A reception, following the mass, was held in the ballroom of the new church, with piano and vocal music by Our Lady of Good Counsel School for Gifted Children.

Livonia To Attend College Business Meet

Vincent G. Portelli, Livonia resident and controller and director of business affairs at Mercy College of Detroit is one of 35 persons selected to participate in the Senior Business Officers Institute at the University of Georgia.

The institute will begin March 17 at Athens, Ga., and continue until March 22.

The program, focusing on the organization and administration of academic institutions, will incorporate a number of case studies presented by visiting presidents, deans, and faculty members. Other speakers will include officers of the American Council on Education.

Portelli holds a master degree in education business administration from the University of Michigan. He is senior business administrator at Mercy College of Detroit and a member of several professional societies.

Christian Literature in Africa and Asia

Christian literature in Africa and Asia, Christian home and family life training; migrant ministry; Indian ministry; and many other needs.

"An active experience of prayer and a sense of oneness with Christians around the world is the purpose of World Day of Prayer," says Mrs. Elmer Anderson, of Rosedale Gardens United Presbyterian Church, who is chairman of the day.

During the past five years WDP services have been held in at least 126 countries, a list which begins with Aden and ends with Zambia. The author of this year's service is Mrs. Rabih Selvaratnam of Ceylon, chairman of the Asian Church Women's Conference.
