Florence Sharp Earns High Award

Farmington's Florence Sharp delights in calling herself, "The Pack Rat," because of all her work with Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, but Scout officials have now officially designated her as top of the heap in women's Scouting.

Mrs. Sharp has just been awarded the highest award in women's Scouting, the "Den Leader's Training Award."

The award is based on accomplishments in 16 areas of competency as established by the National Scouting headquarters in Washington, D.C.

"THIS AWARD" is not won—it is earned with the dedication and enthusiasm which Mrs. Sharp gives to anything to do with Scouting.

She began her Scout career in 1961 with a six-week Leader's Course sponsored by the Ottawa District Council of Scouting.

From there she went on to serve three years as a den mother and three years as a den mother coach and pack coordinator.

Along the way she attended the annual district Scouting pow-wows and received special training in instruction as well as taking courses as a trainer of Cub Scout leaders and teaching training courses for adult leaders.

Mrs. Sharp may have earned the title of "Pack Rat" because she aided Pack 187 of Highmeadow School to establish its pack and this winter has been coordinator in establishing the Ottawa District's newest group, Pack 231, at Larkshire School.

At present she serves Pack 231 as Den Mother Coach and adult trainer and also serves Pack 48 of Bond School as committee secretary and publicity chairman.

SCOUTING is a family affair in the Sharp household.

Father Larry is Webelos master of Pack 48 to which son Mike belongs. Son Lee is a Life Scout in Troop 263 and is serving his third year as Den Chief to Cub Pack 48. After being an "honorary auxiliary Cub Scout" for seven years, daughter Wendy is now a Brownie Scout in Kenbrook School's Troop 504.
