Mystery Blast Kills Nuclear Physicist

A NUCLEAR PHYSICIST working for NASA was killed Saturday when a package he picked up at a Cleveland bus station exploded at his home in Avon, O. Samuel Hammons, 42, died while undergoing surgery for his wounds. The FBI and local police are investigating, but refused to release details of the incident. A NASA spokesman in Cleveland said that Hammons worked on instruments which kept track of radiation exposure to personnel in the nuclear reactor division.

THE FBI HAS announced the arrest of Richard Harry Bedenok, 23, of Chicago, saying that he had in his possession travelers checks taken during a $620,000 armed robbery in New York City last April. Bedenok was arrested in Pompano Beach, Fla.

EIGHT OHIO STUDENTS were injured in an early morning fire Sunday that raced through a fraternity house on the Bowling Green State University campus. At least two dozen residents of the building leaped to safety, some through third-floor windows.

FEDERAL POPULATION statistics announced this week indicate that the birth rate in the United States is at an all-time low and that it will probably dip further. The birth rate in 1967 was 17.9 live births for every 1,000 Americans. The previous low was 18.4 in 1966, 1956 and 1933.

FOUR PERSONS were killed and 29 injured when three chartered buses, a truck and a car collided in thick smoke on the Indiana Toll Road Sunday day. All of the dead were from Ohio. The chartered buses involved were carrying a Black Muslim group from the Youngstown-Cleveland area, bound for the groups annual convention in Chicago.

National News Round Up

THE OHIO SENATE voted 29-3 Monday to boost the annual salaries of members of the legislature from $8,000 to $13,500. The bill now goes to the House.

THE TREASURY Department's "conscience fund" last month reached a total of $2,931,687. The money was turned over to persons who claimed to have defrauded the government in some way and are now making restitution. The fund started in 1911 when the department got its first contribution from a conscience-stricken citizen. In the last three years, however, total contributions have been dropping off, ranging from $20,000 to $25,000 yearly.

A CROWD of University of Florida students demonstrated in front of the state's striking teachers during the beginning of the week and carried posters criticizing Gov. Claude Kirk. As the students demonstrated in Gainesville, Kirk toured poverty areas of Miami, Tampa and Jacksonville, and vowed he would not be forced into negotiations with the teachers.

MAYOR JOHN LINDSAY of New York, said Sunday that Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's willingness to accept a presidential draft was "welcome news" and that Lindsay would support the governor in any bid for national office. The mayor's endorsement came two weeks after he and the governor had battled over strategy to end the nine-day New York sanitation strike.

JAMES H. ROWE, JR., a Washington lawyer and an old friend of President Johnson, has been tapped by the President to run his still unannounced bid for re-election, Democratic party sources revealed. Rowe will head the entire campaign effort, with major help from Vice President Hubert Humphrey, Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien and White House aide Marvin Watson.

SEN. LISTER HILL, Alabama Democrat, announced that he will retire from Congress next January. Hill, 79, has served 30 years in the Senate after 16 years before that as a House member. He said that when his term expires he will have served Congress longer than any other Alabamian.

BAND LEADER Guy Lombardo, who had an artery repaired in surgery this week, is expected to be released from Methodist Hospital in Houston, Tex., in about 10 days.

Buys TV Set For 22 Cents

There'll be fewer arguments over which television programs are to be watched by the Eric Little family.

The Littles, of 28429 Cleveland, Livonia, are now a two-color-TV family following the purchase of a 22-cent set at Wonderland Center.

Little, a Ford Motor Company engineer, was picked as the purchaser of a 23-inch color television set offered in conjunction with the center's Washington's birthday sale last week-end.

Now, program choices will be doubled in the household, members of which include Chris, 16; Paul, 12; and 10-year-old twins—Janice and Joan.
