Western Wayne YWCA Offers Varied Activities

Classes, clubs or committees: whatever your interest, there's a place for you in the Western Wayne County YWCA. Its vast and varied program is found in every community it serves — including Livonia, Westland and Garden City.

Programs are brought to this area as interest and need are indicated.

DAYTIME CLASSES ranging from powder puff mechanics to flower arranging are planned for the spring quarter of Home-makers Holiday at the Rose-dale Gardens Presbyterian Church, Livonia.

Special interest workshops, such as decoupage or interior decorating, are held quarterly in Garden City. Y-Teen and Y-Elite clubs for senior and junior high girls also are now organized in Garden City.

TO HELP SUPPORT activities and programs the Western Wayne County YWCA conducts a yearly membership drive. The drive will be from March 4 through April 8. Memberships are $3.50.

Membership chairman for this area is Mrs. Otto Schatz of Garden City. Working with her are Mrs. Charles Anderson of Garden City, Mrs. James Curry and Mrs. Joseph Patterson of Westland, and Mrs. Donald Rodde of Livonia.

KICKING OFF the membership drive is the Presidents Luncheon on March 8 at the Western Wayne County YWCA building at 1034 Monroe, Dearborn. At the luncheon presidents of women's organizations learn more about the YWCA.

Invited from Livonia are the presidents of the National Farm and Garden Club, the City Women's Club, the League of Women Voters, the Business and Professional Women, the Women's Society of the Newburgh Methodist Church and the women's organization of the Rose-dale Gardens Presbyterian Church.

Westland Co-op Marks First Year

The Westland Cooperative Nursery is celebrating its first full year as a nursery for three and four-year-old youngsters. February activities included conferences for mothers with the teacher, Mrs. Nancy Kierman, and a Valentine party and fire station trip.

Equipment chairman Mrs. Jean Jones and her committee currently are selecting new indoor and outdoor play pieces to be purchased with funds from a December and January candy sale.

The nursery meets regularly at Timothy Church. Parents wishing to enroll children may call Membership Chairman Mrs. Betty Zwilling, at 427-0826.

Coed Is Elected

Karen Hoffman is serving as treasurer of Golden Women's Residence Hall at Alma College this year.

A sophomore at Alma, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hoffman, of 11607 Nashville, Redford Township, and a 1966 graduate of Thurston High School.

VFW Auxiliary Plans Dinner

Plans are underway by the Auxiliary to Mayflower Post #6695, for a Western style beef dinner-chuckwagon, to be held Sunday, March 10, at its Post Home, 1526 S. Mill Street.

General Chairman is Mrs. Robert Smith with her two co-chairmen, Mrs. Robert Barber and Mrs. Ed Kopenski.

Dinners will again be served hourly, 1 thru 4 p.m. and tickets are available by calling 453-8104 or from any Post or Auxiliary member.
