Senate Stamps OK On Rights Program

WASHINGTON -- After seven weeks of intense debate, the Senate has agreed on a sweeping civil rights bill outlawing housing discrimination in over two-thirds of the nation's dwellings, curbing riot weapons and broadening federal guarantees against racial violence. The measure is now scheduled to go to the House.

CARBONDALE, Ill. -- The entire police force and several city firemen remained on strike over the weekend in a dispute over the firing of the police chief. Illinois State Police, sheriff's deputies and Southern Illinois University law officers patrolled the town of 41,000. An injunction had been issued for the city employees to return to work, but they ignored the order.

News Round Up

WASHINGTON -- L. Meadel Rivers (D-S.C.), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, said his panel would not reopen the draft issue because President Johnson already has authority to deal with what draft critics believe are inequities in the system. Rivers' statement came despite pleas from more than 70 congressmen for a review of the policy. This rules out any possible revision by the House this year.

CALUMET, La. -- Bodies of 21 miners, who were killed by a fire and a flood after a cave-in in a salt mine in which they were working, were found but not brought to the surface, last week. Just exactly what happened was not disclosed by the mine owners. Sixteen bodies were found huddled together in a tunnel 3,000 feet from the mine shaft. Five others were discovered in another undisclosed spot. The tragedy struck eight months after the Federal Bureau of Mines recommended a sister shaft be sunk to provide better ventilation, an escape route and various fire controls. These recommendations had not been followed.

PITTSBURGH -- Pittsburgh school teachers, on strike, were holding out for an early settlement with their school board when two legislators said last week that they would go along with a judge's suggestion the dispute be resolved through legislation. The center of the Pittsburgh strike has been a refusal by the school board to accept an election to determine an exclusive bargaining agent for the city's 3,100 teachers. The board claimed such a move would be illegal.

NEW YORK -- The New York Times reports that Federal officials have stated that Herbert Hkin, one of six persons indicted in the Marcus Xickack scandal, is really an undercover agent for the FBI who infiltrated the world of organized crime. Hkin, described as one of the most important FBI informers in recent years, is to be the key federal witness in the federal conspiracy case involving former Water Commissioner James L. Marcus, the Times said.
