Remap Township Precinct Pattern

A steadily growing population has brought about a 1968 revision in the precinct structure of Farmington Township.
Acting Township Clerk Cladys Thomas disclosed this week that it has been necessary to increase the number of precincts from 15 to 16, and to change several boundaries had no precinct and the precinct of the change several boundaries had no precinct of the changes apply to the fast-growing northeast quarter of the township, plus on realignment for the settle north of 10 Mile Rd, and east of Farmington Rd.

precinct will cast their ballots in the August primary and November general election.

City of Farmington's structure of four precincts will remain unchanged from the last municipal election, according to.

City Manager John D. Dinan, Surveyor's sections which have been affected by the 1988 revisions include the following: Section 1, which formerly was included in Precinct 3, now becomes part of the newly created Precinct 16. Section 2, which formerly was included in Precinct 3, also is now in Precinct 16, For the first time, voters in these two areas will cast their ballots at Fairview School.

Section 13, which had been part of Precinct 3, and those readen's Cheology and the precinct 3, and those readen's School.

residents now will vote at High-meadow School.

The western half of Section
2, between Powers Rd, and Farmington. Rd, which form-erly was included in Precinct 7 has been made a part of Precinct 14. The voters af-fected will cast ballots at East Juntor High School.

The most successful Midwinter Sale in Gorman's 29-year history has just ended. Fine furniture has moved off our floor in unprecedented volume. As is always the case when a store does record-breaking business, our stocks are in complete confusion. Literally hundreds of odd-lots and individual pieces must be moved to make way for Spring merchandise. To clear our floor, we are slashing prices drastically on beautiful things by Drexel. — Milo Baughman . . . Thomasville . . . Selig . . . and others.
