AMY JO HALL

LINDA TRACY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Hall Sr., of Garden City, announce the engagement of their daughter, Amy Jo, to Donald J. Neilligan Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Neilligan Sr., of Westland. The bride-elect attends Garden City West High School. Her fiancé is a graduate of John Glenn High School, Westland, and is employed by K-Mart in Garden City. No date has been set for the wedding.

Wedding
Set In Bethesda

Dona Lynn Schaltenbrand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Schaltenbrand, of Denby Avenue, Redford Township, became the bride of Charles L. Childress Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Childress, of Detroit, at Bethesda Lutheran Church on March 8.

The Rev. Leon Appel officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory peat de sole floor length gown with alencon lace applique. Her fingertip veil was held by a small crown of matching lace. Her bouquet was three white orchids and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Joyce Morris. She wore a light green chiton floor length gown and matching shoes. The bridesmaids, Kay Bickle, Diane Scholten, and Rose Chianetta, wore matching gowns in avocado green. Their hairpieces and the toptail balls they carried were of mini-mums in the two shades of green.

John Bankes Jr., nephew of the bridegroom, served as ring-bearer. The best man was Ron Childress, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers included Jim Ostrowski, Tom Catallo, and Fred Schaltenbrand Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a dress of dusty rose and matching accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a lime green costume.

A buffet dinner and dance for 250 was held at the American Legion Hall in Farmington.

Sorority Sale

The Alumnae Chapter of Delta Delta Delta of Dearborn and Western Wayne County will hold a rummage sale Saturday, April 6, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the Second Baptist Church, 3509 Williams, Inster, Michigan.

Proceeds will help support the scholarship funds of the Delta Delta Delta chapters at Michigan State University and the University of Michigan.

MRS. CHARLES CHILDRESS JR.
(Dona Schaltenbrand)

MRS. ARNOLD L. HELWIG
(Laura S. May)

Helwig-May Vows
Taken In Aldersgate

In a recent candlelight ceremony in the Aldersgate Methodist Church, Redford Township, Laura S. May, of Thurston High School, went to Niagara Falls and then on to Florida, where the bridegroom is training at Lakeland with the Detroit Tigers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley May, of Hill and Dale Village, Commerce Township, formerly of Redford Township. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Helwig, of Jerome Avenue, Redford Township, are parents of the bridegroom.

GIVEN BY HER FATHER in marriage, the bride chose a gown of white tulle, with chastity lace fashioning bodice, sleeves and a front panel. Seed pearls trimmed the scalloped neckline. A crystal crown held her fingertip illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of white roses and mums with a yellow rose center.

Barbara De Lorme was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Vickie Marshall, Marion Doone and Marilyn Haines, sister of the bridegroom.

THEY WORE floor-length coat and dress costumes of moss green velvet and Nile green crepe, with Dior bow headpieces, and carried cascade bouquets of mums in shades of gold and bronze.

Assisting the bridegroom were Jim Misaros, as best man, and ushers Stan Jakubiah, Jerry Sambellian and Paul May, brother of the bride.

Mrs. May wore a sheath dress in beige lace, and Mrs. Helwig's choice was a blue dress with matching lace jacket.

A RECEPTION in Blue Bon-
