From the many comments, most would agree that the Spring Dance at Meadowbrook was a huge success. The weather was ideal, the food and the music were excellent. Orchids to the planners for a job well done.

There were about 94 smiling happy couples there and it was apparent that Canterbury-ites like to dance. We hope even more people will join us at our next affair which, according to rumors, may be a "Roaring 20's Party."

A MICHIGAN Rummy Party was held recently (because of the dance postponement) in Barbara and Harry Aston's home on Foxglove Rd. Attending were Jean and Jim Mackay, Nancy and Chuck Lee, Barbara and Harry Aston, Shirley and Jack Schmoeck, Gloria and Terry Kidder and Margaret and Gail Nau.

One of our neighbors on Mulrind Drive was seen recently on Channel 7's Morning Show. Singing with her quartet, the "Lef-Dovers," was Sue Arabian. Her partners in this venture, which plugged the Sweet Adeline's Regional Convention and concert in the Scottish Rite Auditorium on April 20, were Charlotte Weigle, of Plymouth, Marion Greene and Jan Samudry, of Farmington.

The four women, all housewives, have sung together for four years, practicing at the Arabian home each Monday. The name "Lef-Dovers" is derived from the fact that three of the girls formerly sang in championship quartets which have disbanded. Between the four, they have a total of 14 children. Marion Greene is director of the South Oakland County Suburbanette Chorus of Women (Sweet Adelines).

Nuttall To Attend Meeting

Jim Nuttall, staff member of Kenbrook School, will attend the 1968 Spring Institute on Elementary English to be held in Philadelphia, Pa., April 6 to April 9. The conference will be devoted to Explorations in Children's Writing.

The program brochure states the event is expected to "provide an assessment of new scholarship and new research as it relates to composition in the language arts curriculum for grades one through six."

Particular emphasis will be placed on prose writing, poetry, motivation, evaluation, recent research and scholarship, and the inter-relationship of the language arts.

Consultants and speakers who will attend include Dr. James Britton, of the University of London; Dr. Alvina Burrows, of New York University; and Richard Lewis, of Manhattan's New School for Social Research.

and nephew, Brently Campbell, 6, of Pinckney, who spent 10 days as houseguests while their mother made a trip to Florida. Some recent visitors on Mulrind Drive were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jellison, of Muncie, Ind. They were visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Marge and Jim Jellison.

Also visiting, but in the other direction, were Don and Carol Lunders, of Club House Lane. They just returned from a week or trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., where they enjoyed a full week of warm sunny weather. They also visited Cape Kennedy.

Dottie and Bob Soli, of Harrogate Ct., were in Nassau for a week. Bob was one of 45 people who won the trip for the Par Club of Xerox Corp. They had beautiful weather all the while, except for the lovely six hours they sat at Metro Airport waiting for the fog to lift, so that they could get started on their trip.

HOSTESS Wilma Northway gave a bridge luncheon this past week. Enjoying it were: Rosemary Blyden, Phyllis Poe, Kelvin R. Orleby, Attorney 3114 Grand River Avenue Farmington, and a representative of the STATE OF MICHIGAN IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF OAKLAND.

SHIRLEY P. BAXBY, Plaintiff, vs. WILLIAM BAXBY, Defendant. ORDER BY PUBLICATION.
