Around Farmington

Have you wondered about the 15-foot crosses painted on Farmington Rd.? A news release from the Michigan State Highway Commission says that the crosses will be used as reference points for aerial photography that began last week.

Briar Hill NEWS

Fran Mann, 626-5946

The day was pretty, the food was good, the fashions were bright and gay, and the Briar Hill Ladies luncheon was a huge success with 113 women attending. Special mention was made of our "oldest" resident—Ferne Braumreuther; our newest resident—Beverly Petchell; and the mother with the most children—Maxine Morris.

Not too many weeks left in the schedule for the Men's Bowling League. Top team at the moment is comprised of Don Miller, Ted Morris, Bill Douglass and Howard Helmer. High single game score is shared by Ron Pierdon and Joe Stephan, Sr., with 264.

WILMA AND DON PRATT, formerly of Old Bedford, now living in Eden, N.Y. (outside of Buffalo) arrived, with children Tracey, Glenn, Jeff, Paul and Carolyn, last Friday eve at the Devil home for a week-end visit. Don had a business convention to attend in Cobo Hall on Saturday and Sunday, so Wilma and some old friends went to Northland for lunch Saturday afternoon.

Fran and Zeke Copp had open house for the Fratts Saturday evening, and Sunday evening the Deats family in Kimberley were their hosts.

The Fratts left for home Monday morning after a gay and hectic weekend. Before they arrived, very early Friday morning, Gloria had to rush Bill to the hospital where he stayed till Saturday, so it was quite a weekend at the Devil home.

A BELATED happy birthday to Aubrey Crockett, who celebrated March 30.

Many are to be congratulated this first week in April—Cindy Sloane on April 1; Marcia Buzard, April 4; Randy Moffitt on April 5; April 6th is shared by Sharon Setter and Jimmy Patterson and Shirley O'Neill on April 7. We understand that Shirley has not been too well recently and hope that soon she will be recovered completely.
