

Frink Eyes Race For McDonald's Seat

GARY FRINK

Former congressional aide Gary Frink came back to the 19th district this weekend to rouse up help for his campaign to unseat Republican Rep. Jack H. McDonald.

Frink, 35, is talking with Democratic leaders in Livonia, Farmington and Redford and is expected to announce shortly. He charged he was forced out of his $21,000-a-year job as staff director and counsel for the Postal Facilities and Modernization subcommittee and the Civil Service Committee. FRINK BECAME a target of Rep. Delbert L. Latta (R-Ohio) for permitting a $50-a-plate fund raising dinner to raise campaign money while still on the congressional staff.

"I have been attacked on the floor of the House because I had the audacity to consider running for Congress," Frink said. "When I became a federal employee, I most certainly did not give up my constitutional rights."

"I do not want to involve members of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee in a partisan, misleading battle. If my resignation is a sacrifice I must make to avoid this, then so let it be."

Frink said the dinner funds are frozen in a separate bank account and may be withdrawn only for campaign expenses. The account is under the control of the organization, "District of Columbia Friends of Gary Frink."

"I REGRET that it has been necessary for me to give up my job but my wife, Sherry, and I have agreed that I must do this as a result of the slanderous attack made upon me by a Republican congressman on the legally-privileged sanctuary of the House floor," Frink said.

Frink was quickly defended on the floor by Rep. James O'Hara (D-Mich.), who said the dinner and fund raising meets all the requirements of House canon.

"I am hopeful that the gentlemen from Ohio will take an appropriate opportunity to repair any damage to Mr. Frink's character that may have resulted from these innuendoes."

Mardiros Will Expand Campaign

Volunteers promoting the candidacy of Ron Mardiros for congress on the Democratic ticket this week extended his petition drive into the home grounds of incumbent Republican Congressman Jack H. McDonald of Redford Township.

Mardiros is yet to announce officially that he will run although he was out with Mardiros volunteers Monday when they began circulating his nominating petitions.

The petition drive Monday, an election day in Livonia, for awhile was the cause of consternation among election and school officials when the volunteers and Mardiros set up operations near several polling places.

HOWEVER, Mardiros had moved beforehand to obtain a ruling from a state elections officer in Lansing that the petition drive near polls was not in violation of election laws as Mardiros, himself, was not a candidate in the election.

Local school officials were left to rule on whether the unannounced candidate or his workers could seek out names for the petitions on school property, and School Board Secretary A. Edward Katz later admitted there was no existing Board policy prohibiting the petition drive at the schools.

Mardiros, himself, set up operations at the entrance of his own Precinct 8 at Wilson Elementary School.

HE AND THE volunteers collected more than 2,400 signatures in a 13-hour period Monday. Three thousand signatures are necessary for filing with the Secretary of State by June 1.

The volunteers will continue collecting petition signatures, expanding their drive both into Redford Township and Farmington, according to Mardiros' aide, James P. McCarthy.

The 10th Congressional District in which Mardiros seeks the nomination includes Farmington, Redford Township and Livonia.

Owner Begins Sentence

Joseph G. Kwasy, owner of a trailer park on Orchard Lake Rd., at 11 Mile Rd., started serving a 90-day jail sentence Thursday for failure to eliminate a stream pollution hazard at his 43-unit court.

Kwasy was sentenced to the Oakland County jail for contempt of court by Circuit Judge William J. Byer, who had issued an order to correct the sewage conditions last November.

The county health department originated the complaint against Kwasy, and a spokesman said neighboring subdivisions were being endangered by downstream pollution from the trailer park.

Township Supervisor Curtis H. Hall, when asked about local authority over trailer court operations, said all such matters rest in the hands of the county and state.
