Fashion Has 'Pretty Look' This Spring

Spring fashions bring back the "pretty look" in feminine styles and flattering colors. The straight and narrow look of the past few seasons is being replaced by a new look—shape—the "fit and flare" silhouette—reports Marjorie Sohn, University of Illinois Extension clothing specialist. Dresses will be close fitting above the belt and flared, pleated or gathered below.

SKIRTS AND BLOUSES, the all-time favorites, have a new look, too. The dirndl with its gathered waistline rates high among skirt shapes. Many blouses have bands of lace at the throat, and puffed sleeves and ruffles also add feminine appeal. The body skirt, a closely fitted style, brings a new look to the tailored blouse.

Spring colors tend to be bright—whitened bright and neon bright. The white brights include shrimp, coral, rosebud and apricot.

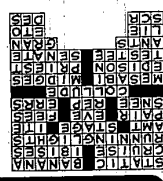

Neon brights, which are especially popular for sports-wear, have been toned down in combinations with neutrals. The vibrant shades also make attractive accents for the lighter, whiter tones.

BUT REGARDLESS of which colors are popular for spring, Miss Sohn emphasizes that you'll look best in colors determined by your own personal coloring. "Analyze your natural coloring to get a basis for choosing your own colors. The color of your hair, your eyes, your skin tone and the red related to your skin tone form a combination that has complete individuality. Your size and personality are also factors to be considered. If you have a fair, flawless skin, probably all colors will be reasonably becoming to you. On the other hand, if your complexion is sallow, stay away from colors that have yellow tints. Light colors like pastels and white will be becoming because they tend to make you look less rather than yellowish. If you have a blue cast to your eyes, colors with a blue cast are good bets, too.

YOUR NATURAL coloring is due to the colors you should wear because your complexion is most affected by the colors you coordinate with it.

FRESH PEAR PUDDING
6 fresh pears
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground mace
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 eggs
2 cups milk
Pare and core pears. Place in 1-quart casserole. Fill centers with sugar. Combine the 1/4-cup sugar, mace and cornstarch. Beat in eggs. Mix in 1/2-cup cold milk. Heat remaining milk; add and pour over pears. Bake 1 1/2 hours or until knife inserted in custard comes out clean and pears are tender, in preheated oven (325 degrees). Makes six servings.
