

Doctors Recommend Teams In Accidents

University of Michigan physicians recommend the team approach in "treatment of the fortunate survivor" of traffic accidents.

The doctors, reporting on special problems of persons who wear seat belts but survive accidents, also suggest that further advancement of lap and shoulder belts can reduce or prevent types of injuries.

In an article in Michigan Medicine, the doctors describe specific cases of seat belt injuries which they treated as a team at the U-M Medical Center.

Services Now Major Road Costs

LANSING -- Rising demand for traffic services are causing many county road commissions to reassess budget needs, according to R.V. Meade, Jackson County Highway Engineer, chairman of the Engineering Committee of the County Road Association of Michigan.

"County road departments have, historically budgeted for construction and maintenance but increased need for greater traffic services may require separate accounting for this important function," Meade says.

Traffic services consist of snow and ice removal, mowing, pavement marking, signals and signing.

SUCH AIDS to motorists, once simply lumped under "maintenance," absorb from seven to 11 per cent of total county road funds. In just one year, counties spent more than $11 million for this service.

"Inclusion of traffic service costs as part of maintenance gives an unfair picture of the actual expense of roadway upkeep," Meade says.

Meade noted that the share of county road funds spent for traffic assistance is going up steadily, reflecting better efforts to keep roads open after snowstorms and improve safety aids for travelers. Increased public dependence on road transportation year-around and under all conditions make traffic services essential to the safety and convenience of road users, Meade declares.

FIX-IT TIP

Using cleats is an easy way to tie a shelf, or several shelves, to a wall. Nail a cleat to the studs. Place the shelf on the cleat and nail. Put a couple of brackets of wood or metal underneath if it is a lone shelf. If more than one, add vertical supports by nailing to both cleat and shelf!
