Mrs. Adam Kuster is very sick with pneumonia.

A new plan of service was tried last Sunday evening at the Methodist Church. The Epworth League, beginning at 6:15, was in charge of the young people until 7 o'clock, when the pastor took charge, and after singing a hymn and reading a scripture lesson the sermon was delivered. The pastor will continue this order of evening service for the next three months in hopes of keeping the young people in the church service, and at the same time, provide a short service for those who desire to attend from 7 to 7:30.
