

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
Absolutely has no substitute

Many mixtures are offered as substitutes for Royal. No other baking powder is the same in composition or effectiveness, or so wholesome and economical, nor will make such fine food.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure, Grape Cream of Tartar. No alum, lime or acid phosphates.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. D. A. Durllee of Detroit was in town Friday.

Mrs. R. J. Pickett and daughter, Sarie, spent Tuesday in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCully were in town Sunday calling on old friends.

Norman and Waters Lee journeyed to Detroit, on their motorcycle Monday.

Mrs. F. M. Warner and daughter, Helen, were at their cottage at Cass Lake Tuesday.

Miss Edna Goodrich and friend of Ypsilanti called at the home of Mrs. J. J. Webster last Friday.

Miss Stella Sadler of Detroit spent Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Salow, Sr., of Novi were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Meyers Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Arthur Tredway of Lansing was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Moore Thursday and Friday.

Miss Mina Stewart of Detroit is spending a few days in Farmington visiting friends before leaving on a trip for California.

Miss Orene Habermehl spent Friday night and Saturday with friends at Northville and attended the Decoration Day exercises there.

Mrs. Fannie Gleason of Detroit is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Laderoot.

Miss Virginia Botsford of Detroit spent Saturday and Sunday with Harley and Madeline Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. August Layaz and son, Ernest, of Waterford visited Farmington friends Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lockwood of Northville visited at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Caroline Spaller, Sunday and Monday.

The Ladies' Union met Thursday with Mrs. Carlos Steele. Ice cream and cake were served and an interesting and pleasant time reported.

Mrs. Josephine Francis of Detroit spent part of last week with her son, wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Francis, and calling on some of her Farmington friends.

Mrs. Clyde Nichols and son, Sherwood, and Mrs. Bert Norton of Detroit were guests last Friday of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Voorheis, and F. H. Nichols and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gullen and son, Harold, left here last Saturday for Brantford, Ont., where they will make their future home. Their household goods were moved a few days earlier.

Miss Viola Rutenbar of Redford township visited her cousins, Misses Ethel and Leona Becker.

The new ice cream parlors, the Dew Drop Inn, opened last Friday and are doing a rushing business.

Mrs. W. Stillwell and Mrs. Myron Robbins of Northville were guests of Mrs. Louise Habermehl and family last Friday.

Little Sherwood Coe of North Farmington spent from Friday to Sunday night with his grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Sprague.

The next regular meeting of Farmington chapter will be held Friday evening, June 12, and will be called to order at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woodworth of Pontiac were guests at the home of the Nelson sisters Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pluhar and three children of Detroit were over Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Pluhar's mother, Mrs. Frances Regentek.

Mrs. Perry Prindle was in Detroit Sunday to see her husband, who is much better and is expected to be brought home from the hospital the last of this week.

Mrs. Herman Miller and two children of Fowler have been spending the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Voss.

Miss Gertrude Laderoot celebrated her eleventh birthday anniversary Monday. An ice cream luncheon was served in honor of the event.

Mrs. Emma Wilber and Mrs. C. W. Wilber were in Detroit Monday. Mrs. Emma Wilber is taking treatment for her hand, which was injured last December.

Miss Mary Green went to Pontiac Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Shattuck, and from there will accompany her sister on a trip to Flint, where they will spend a few days with friends.

The Misses Warner, Ernestine Pierce, and Messtis, Edgar Pierce, Mark Owen and Murray Moore will form a party of pleasure seekers Saturday, and enjoy an outing at Bob-Lo island, weather permitting.

Dr. E. F. Holcomb and family spent the week end at Fremont, Ohio, where they visited at the homes of James Conroy and Wm. Thomas, returning Monday and report a very pleasant time. The doctor and wife were guests of honor on Friday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Conroy entertained at cards.

Miss Ella Clark of Northville visited her aunts, the Misses Burton, on Sunday.

The village council held their regular meeting Monday evening and transacted routine business.

A few changes in time are announced in the time card of the D. U. R. in this week's issue.

Miss Deeda Travis was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Earle Ransier, at Birmingham, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Webster entertained the latter's cousin, Miss Jennie Meaus, of Detroit Sunday.

The scheduled meeting of North Farmington Cemetery association has been postponed until and will be held on June 21.

Dr. J. A. Miller was in Detroit Monday and in attendance at the meeting of clinics of St. Mary's and Harper hospitals.

Mark Owen was on the sick list a few days the first of the week and absent from his place in the local postoffice Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Webster of Detroit spent over Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Webster.

It keeps the boys over at the Park garage busy filling the gas tank these days. Six hundred gallons last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, tenants of Mrs. Mary Osmus, have moved their goods to Detroit, where Mr. Becker has secured work.

Park Garage reports the sale of four more Fords this week, the cars going to Herman Goers, Louis Fitzmeyer, Fred Naback and Karl Tibbits.

If you've any kick coming on your village tax assessment next Tuesday is the time to "holler." Announcement of Review is published in another column.

Quite a number of local people enjoyed a holiday Saturday and visited the Ringling shows in Detroit. A few also went down for the show the preceding day.

Dr. J. A. Miller, local agent of the Buick car, reports sales to his brother, H. L. Miller of Redford, and to H. L. Weaver, formerly of Farmington, but now of Traverse City.

Dr. Holcomb, Herbert Thayer and Amos Otis were included in the big delegation of Knights Templar, who took the special train out of Detroit Saturday for Lansing, and participated in the K. T. festivities Wednesday.

E. S. Grace, John Lapham, L. F. Schroeder, H. L. Mans and J. A. Price made up a party into Detroit Monday afternoon to help welcome the Tigers home. The party took dinner down town, returning about nine o'clock the same evening.

Vern Mack, who had been working for Contractor Dillon at the local water plant for the past several weeks, has completed the work and left for his home at Olivet the latter part of last week, for a few days' visit with home folks, after which he goes to Royal Oak.

Hon. Samuel W. Smith was in Farmington Friday for the Decoration Day exercises, and again Saturday, attending to business matters. The fact that Farmington receives no mail on holidays was noted by the congressman, and we may expect a beneficial change as a result, as he volunteered to take the matter up. A morning holiday mail service at least will be greatly appreciated by local business men and patrons of the postoffice.

Tag day for the benefit of the Oakland county hospital this year has been set for Saturday, June 6, and the work has been extended to all the towns and districts of Oakland county. Mrs. Fred M. Warner will have charge of the work in Farmington and is already supplied with boxes and the tags which bear the emblem of the hospital. Inasmuch as the hospital is now a county institution the board of trustees decided to extend the work of tag day to all parts of the county. The funds secured from the sale of tags will go toward bettering the equipment and extending the work of the hospital.

Fred M. Warner Real Estate

We Have Three
Special
Bargains
IN REAL ESTATE

If you are interested in Real Estate, See Us

FRED M. WARNER
REALTY COMPANY

FRANK F. ZESSAU FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND UNDERTAKING PARLORS

The most complete and best stocked parlors this side of Detroit.

Large line of Caskets and Funeral
Accessories in stock at all times.

Leave your Arrangement entirely with us.

Flowers and Floral Decorations
for Funeral purposes.

Satisfactory terms and service guaranteed.

PHONE NUMBER 24
FARMINGTON, MICH

HOW ABOUT THAT

SUNDAY DINNER

HAVE YOU SELECTED YOUR MEAT YET?

Let me help you with my full line of fancy Meats.

Make my Shop Your Headquarters

H. L. MAAS
Phone 85 Farmington, Mich.

FRED L. COOK & CO.

Now that the time has arrived when we can reasonably expect warm weather, we wish to call your attention to several items of seasonable goods, such as

Stephenson Underwear for Men
Puritan Underwear for Ladies
Black Cat Hosiery for Men, Women and Children

Hard Pan Shoes for Men
Keith Konqueror Shoes and Oxfords for Men
Boston Favorite Shoes and Oxfords for Ladies

A good line of Soft Soles for Infants
A full run of sizes in Tennis Oxfords
Oxfords and Pumps for Misses and Children

Prints, Gingham, Percales, Cotton Crepes, Poplins, Piques,
Wool Hats in Popular Colors, Straw Hats, Caps

We also have a good assortment of Gents' Work Shirts, Dress Shirts,
Collars, Ties, Braces, etc.

Try our Grocery Department for
Tea, Coffee, Canned Goods, Salt Fish,
Serials, Oranges, Lemons, Pickles, Spices, Etc

FRED L. COOK & CO.