"YOU'VE GOT TROUBLE, RIGHT HERE IN RIVER CITY" — but Plymouth can expect nothing but FUN when "The Music Man" is staged by Plymouth High School students May 2-4 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Fred Nelson, PHS vocal director, is shown here with Professor Harold Hill, Jim Warren and Marian the librarian who will be played by Sue Robinson as they run through Meredith Willson's complicated lyrics and music. Tickets are now available through the school or may be purchased at the door on the night of the performance.
