

Britain Studies Bill To Ban Race Discrimination

FRAGUE -- Czechoslovakia's liberal government warned the Soviet Union against interference in its internal affairs last week. Sources said that Jozef Lenart, leader of the Czechoslovak delegation to a world Communist meeting in Budapest during the week and secretary of the party central committee, had been authorized to tell his Soviet counterpart that "interference in Czechoslovak internal affairs" must stop. Behind the country's stand was the Soviet Union's backing of conservative elements in the Czech Communist party who are opposed to the liberal course of First Secretary Alexander Dubcek.

WORLD ROUNDUP

OTTAWA--Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau has called a Canadian general election

June 25. Trudeau asked Gov. Gen. Roland Michener to dissolve Parliament and issue writs for the election. It was the first time that a prime minister had met Parliament after a recess to announce dissolution.

DUBLIN--The Irish government has raised the price of beer, tobacco and gasoline and Finance Minister Charles Haughey warned taxes might have to be increased also. The new annual budget panned the shock of the raised prices by also raising social welfare payments and giving special tax allowances for newly married couples. Haughey said the government had also decided to follow Britain and Northern Ireland into adopting decimal currency.

LONDON--The House of Commons gave first approval last week to a bitterly contested government bill to outlaw racial discrimination in white sections of British life, but the measure faces tough battle in committee. The Conservative opposition, which tried in vain to kill the bill, was split on the issue and its leadership embarrassed by a speech made by Enoch Powell likening the bill to a match touched to gunpowder.

AMMAN-- Jordan's King Hussein's English wife, Princess Muna, has given birth to twin girls, Princess Muna, who was born in Ipswich, England, has already given Hussein two sons, Prince Abdulla, now 6 and Prince Feisal, 4.

MOSCOW--The Soviet Communist party said last week there is a clear possibility communism might be overthrown in China, in a strong attack on Mao Tse-tung's policies. The Soviet party's theoretical journal said, "The very existence of the Communist Party in China--is now at stake. Already clearly in sight is the danger of a change in the nature of the government in the country and, hence, a real danger to the Socialist gains of the Chinese revolution."

SAIGON--The U.S. Command announced the third crash of a U.S. Air Force F4U fighter-bomber on its way to or from a bombing mission against North Vietnam. The command said the plane was believed down somewhere in Thailand. There was no other information on the plane or its crew, the command said.

LONDON--More than 1,500 dockers walked off their jobs last week and marched on Parliament protesting colored immigration. The strikers demanded to be disbanded and stood by in case of trouble. The dockers, from the city's tower East End, voiced support.

Enoch Powell, who was fired from his shadow cabinet post after he made a speech against further immigration of non-whites and urged those non-whites already in Britain to go back home.
