IRVIN E. GILMAN of Redford Township will be assistant principal flutist with the Cranbrook Bach Orchestra at the third annual Bach Cranbrook Festival May 17 and 18. A member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Gilman is the founder of the Detroit Arts Wind Quintet.
He is a member of the applied music faculty at Wayne State University.

Silent Classics Slated

The thin line of demarcation that separates humor and pathos is seen vividly as silent stars, Charlie Chaplin, Jackie Coogan and Marie Dressler come alive on the Henry Ford Museum Theater screen Sunday, May 5.

Sentimentality and comedy punctuate two silent film classics of an earlier era that haven't ceased in captivating the hearts and minds of America.

Appearing on the double billed feature is "Tillie's Punctured Romance" starring Charlie Chaplin and Marie Dressler, followed by "The Kid." Both are entertainment designed for the whole family.

They are the last in the Spring Famous Early Movies Series which began on Feb. 25.

Both of these Famous Early Movies will be shown at 2 and 4 p.m. Sunday, May 5 in the Henry Ford Museum. There is no charge for any of the Early Movies other than the regular entrance fee to the Museum.

Sylvia Featured Thru May 11

Saucy Sylvia, piano-playing comedienne, will remain as the featured entertainer at the 24 Karat Club through May 11.
The Dearborn restaurateur who soared to national prominence after her inaugural appearance at Harold Wiggle's popular niter in late 1966, has increased her popularity with each succeeding billing.
Sharing the entertainment roles with her are regulars Harry Harris, the 76-year-old original partner of Jimmy Durante, and Pearl May, popular song stylist.
Backing up the entertainers and providing dance music is the Lennie Schick Quartet which features Lennie on the sax.
