

At Home In Old Homestead

By IRENE BARTH

The Tuesday night pinocle club enjoyed an evening at the Fisher Theatre on April 24 where they saw a fine performance of the musical "Cabaret."

By now, all residents should have received notices concerning the spring pot-luck supper which will be held on Saturday, May 25 in the John Primeau residence.

This is an excellent opportunity to make new friends and renew old acquaintances, so let's show our social committees we appreciate their efforts with a good response. R.S.V.P. to either Gloria Babington, 476-2057, or Norma Riebe, 476-2177, by May 18.

THE CHAMPS in the Early-Bird bowling league, after a down-to-the-last-"man" duel, are "The Jallbirds." A scant margin of one half point earned this title for the following gals, who are all residents of our sub: Ann Oddo, Pat Switzer, Phil Borst and myself. All of the ladies who bowl in this league are now looking forward to the luncheon on May 4 in the Rotunda Inn where the trophies and prize money will be awarded.

TWO VERY UNWANTED and unexpected visitors were caught in the act of robbing the Oddo's home when Ann returned from a short trip to town to find a strange car in her garage and a strange man in the house. The culprits escaped, one on foot, the other in the car and as yet are still at large.

A most frightening experience for Ann and a reminder to all of us, that "It can happen here." The police recommend that garage doors be kept closed as much of the time as possible and be sure to lock your house, even if gone for only a brief time.

Many of our families took advantage of the spring break to vacation in Florida and enjoy a change of pace and scenery. Among the fortunate travelers were the Carl Galsers and houseguest, Lene Kibsgaard, who is approaching the end of her visit in our country as a foreign exchange student from Denmark. Part of the incentive for their trip was to show Lene as much of our country as possible before she leaves for her homeland the end of June.

Most of their two-week trip was spent in Melbourne, Fla., from where they did much sight-seeing, including visits to Cypress Gardens, Marjorie and Cape Kennedy. On the return drive, a one-day stop-over in the Williamsburg-Jamestown area and a day in Washington, D.C., gave the travelers a quick look at many of our historic places. It is a trip Lene will surely long remember.

BETH AND BOB DOLL and their children are convinced it's a small world after all after seeing neighbors, the Longs, at Busch Gardens, and then seeing the Galsers at Cypress Gardens. The Dolls were visiting Beth's sister in Orlando, Fla., and doing some sight-seeing when they saw their neighbors.

The Longs, Betty and Don and daughters, Donna and Peggy, flew down to Florida, where they made North Miami their headquarters for several days of sunning, swimming and golfing.
