Farmington Couple Married April 20

Dianne Elizabeth Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mason, of Farmington, was united in marriage with Glenn R. Hoppentstet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hoppentstet, of Farmington, April 20.

The afternoon ceremony took place in the Nardin Park Methodist Church.

The bride's gown was white peau de sole over tulle, fastened with round neckline and short sleeves and embroidered in lace and seed pearls. Her trousseau veil was three-tiered and shoulder-length, and she carried white roses with an orchid center.

KATHY MASON was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Nancy Ralph, Nancy Lichtman and Bonnie Hoppentstet, sister of the bridegroom. Karen and Cindy Willet served as junior bridesmaids.

Assisting the bridegroom were Bob Houghton, of Flint, as best man, and ushers Robert Clappison, Tom Armstrong and Peter Sutherland, all of Farmington.

Harry E. Mason, of Royal Oak, grandfather of the bride, sang two solos.

A BUFFETT DINNER reception for 200 guests in the Pine Lake Country Club followed the ceremony.

The couple honeymooned in Canada and will live in Royal Oak.

Teachers Married In Plymouth

Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Francis Aloysius Guldbrandson are making their home in Battle Creek, where both are teachers, following their April 9 marriage in Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, Plymouth.

The bride is the former Janice Marie Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Murray, of Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Tage R. Guldbrandson, of Irvn Avenue, Plymouth, are parents of the bridegroom.

THE REV. ROBERT SCHADEN heard the couple's vows. Given by her father in marriage, the bride wore a full-length white linen gown with empire waist and panel train edged in lace. Her cathedral-length veil also was trimmed in lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Three sisters of the bride were her attendants. Lynn Elleen Murray was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Myra Ann and Cheryl Lee Murray. All wore floor-length green silk dresses.

Dale R. Guldbrandson, of Milwaukee, was his brother's best man. The ushers were H. Wilbur Ford, of Wolfboro, N.H., Michael Lettler, of Davidson, Mich., Marley Torp-Smith, of Boston, and Chris Gaffield, of Salem.

4-H Council Plans Sale

The Wayne County 4-H Council will hold an auction of household items, clothing and farm equipment starting at 9 a.m., Saturday, May 11, on the Quirk Road fairgrounds in Belleville.

Funds raised will be used to complete a year-round activities building on the fairgrounds. Food will be sold during the auction.

Contributions may be taken to the storage building on the grounds and left with the caretaker at any time prior to the sale.

After a reception for 200 guests in The Lord Fox restaurant, the couple left for a honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains. Both are graduates of Michigan State University.

Shepherds Feted On Anniversary

A recent gathering in Roma Hall marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shepherd, of Monroe.

Putting on the celebrations were their three sons, Walter, of Livonia, Earl, of Redford Township, and George, of Detroit, and their wives and 10 children.

Hilda Faber, who was bridesmaid for Julia Shepherd at the wedding 50 years ago, also attended the festivities, along with Shepherd's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Straszheim, of West Lafayette, Ind.
