Briar Hill Notes

It's a good thing I don't need a voice to write this column because, at the moment, I haven't much of one. It's a result of standing with Jack for almost three hours at Central Michigan University watching our son, John, win the high jump competition. It was COLD and a little wet and I already had a sore throat.

Then Sunday, we went to Albin to visit our daughter, Debbie, and by then, at times, I had no voice. I'm sure the children rather like it but makes answering the telephone rather difficult.

Small Jennifer Buzzard will have a birthday cake on May 14th and young Dick Patterson celebrates May 17.

MARION GAHAGEN, of Brantford, president of the Farmington League of Women Voters, left Monday, April 29, and drove with some other ladies to Chicago. They all attended a national convention held in the Conrad Hilton for the week. Urban crisis was the theme. National election of officers was held and there were many meetings to attend - leaving no time for sight-seeing.

Marion did manage to get to Marshall Field's to buy the children's gifts and eat at a Japanese restaurant which she enjoyed very much. If it's any consolation to anyone, she discovered that most of our local problems can be found all over the United States - school, government, taxes, etc.

MARY KAY BURR, Miss Teenage Detroit, has a lead role in the musical "Kismet" which will be given this weekend in North Farmington School. If this one is as good as the others have been, you shouldn't miss it!

May meeting for the Briar Hill Book Club is this coming Monday, May 13, in the home of Marion Gahagen. Members unable to attend, please call.
