That long-awaited season of spring has finally arrived. We can tell by the things that are happening with our families in Canterbury.

Take for instance Mary Ellen and Jim Haugen, of Farmhill Dr., and their four children, Karl, Jan, Jimmy and Leigh. They went sailing this past week at Kensington Park with some friends, Warren and Sharon Hanselman, of Ann Arbor. They said that the sailing is beautiful at Kensington. More people should try it.

ALSO heralding spring this past weekend at Kensington, were the boys of Boy Scout Troop 46 (a brand new troop sponsored by Bond School). Sleeping in wet, leaking tents, and cooking soggy meals were Mike Haight, Tom McCarthy, Bob Mitchell, Tom Takai, Mike Rapp, Dave Scupheim, Bill Murray, Bob Murray, Mike Sharp, Lee Sharp, Randy Mikula and Bob Dickerson.

Leaders for this camp-out were Larry Sharp, Glen Black, Bob Murray and Bob Rapp. A good wet, time was had by all.

REAL SPRING weather took the Brownies of Troop 607 on a nature walk through Bill Mitchell's Woods on Haggerty Rd. last week. This next week will find the girls learning to build a wood fire at the home of Bea Hane on Club House Lane. The Brownies will use the fire pot that her husband, Bill, built last year.

The Brownie Troop's leaders are Jean McMillen, of Muirland Dr., and Joan LaVaway, of Club House Lane.

Canterbury Newcomers Club is now forming. Are you interested in meeting your neighbors from one end of Canterbury to the other? --sharing common interests?

Groups are now forming for tennis, golf, gourmet, bridge, and crafts. Call Charlotte Lesinger, 951-1768, or Mary Ellen Haugen, 951-2161, for further information.

YOU PROBABLY HAVE seen all of the Bond School kids sporting new sweatshirts with either gold or white lettering. The road-runner design was made by Bob Taylor, of Club House Lane. Bob is the father of Cathy and Billy Taylor, who go to Bond. Good job, Bob!

Thirteen carloads of Cub Scouts and dads from Pack 48 attended the Tiger ballgame this last Saturday. It's too bad the Tigers lost, and it rained, but the Cubs still had a wonderful time.

Congratulations to Sylvia and Allen Gale, of Muirland Dr., on their 11th wedding anniversary which they celebrated on Sunday, May 5.

CONGRATULATIONS are also in order for Donald Givlin, of Club House Lane, who was married last Saturday to Dianne Dougan, of Bloomfield Hills.

ANN AND JIM CARRIER, Millie and Jim Kremidas, Joan and Ed LaVaway and Olga and Tom Vossos spent a wonderful evening with Neil and Fred Herman, all of Club House Lane, at the Huron River Hunting and Fishing Club, more commonly referred to as "the Hunt and Grant Club."

They were surprised to find out it was Jim Carrier's birthday. The group ended the evening back at the Herman's for some of Fred's famous stingers and some good parlor games.

This past week, Sylvia Gale, of Muirland Dr., was hostess at a bridge party. Included in the bridge players were Maureen O'Connor, Ruth Paibee, Joan Taylor, Norreen Givlin, Betty Warren, Dorothy Bolak and Dottie Sohl.
