final event of the day decided matters.

Then Franklin bounced back to down N. Farmington, 79-39, in a Northwest Suburban League meet.

Franklin's long jump record actually was topped twice in the meet with Stevenson in which Stevenson's Mastny set a field record at Franklin of 21 feet, two inches.

Coming in second Bill Rogalski of Franklin reached 21 feet, 1 1/2 inches, while teammate Jeff Kind was measured at 20-4, both under Rogalski's former school standard of 20-3.

Andy Charniga unloaded a toss of 50 feet, 1/4 inch to blast the Franklin shot put record which had stood at 49 feet, 1 3/4 inches.

THE MEET with Stevenson was decided by a great anchor leg by Paul Lucas, who came from behind to win the mile relay, the final race of the meet.

Against North Farmington, Ron Troia and Kind each won twice--Troia in the 100 and 200-yard dashes and Kind in the low hurdles and long jump.

The loss was the second of the week for North Farmington which tallied 28 points to 85 for Groves and 52 for Andover.

Stranded Runners Are Costly

Our Lady of Sorrows' baseball team got the men aboard base Tuesday, but couldn't push them around.

As a result Sorrows wound up losing to Pontiac Catholic, 4-1.

The Sorrows team not only had 10 men stranded on the sacks, but also had two more thrown out at the plate.

Greg Main was touched for a run in the first and three in the third when Paul Schmansky singled over two mates.
