SLEIGHT OF HAND — Karrell Fox, a new Farmington resident, is one of the nation's foremost magicians. His repertoire includes over 5,000 tricks, many of them card tricks which he rehearses for three months before performing in public.

Piano Festival June 9

Hundreds of piano students have been selected to perform in the 25th annual Michigan Music Festival, the world's largest mass piano concert, 2:30 p.m., Sunday, June 9, in Cobbs Auditorium.

Friday tickets are available at any Cobbs box office.

Soldiers for the program will be 21-year-old Miriam Garber, of Farmington, winner of the $1,000 Grinnell Foundation of Music scholarship award for 1968.

Eric Norris, Grinnell Music Stores staff organist, will conduct this year's concert. Grinnell, which supplies all the spinets, consoles, grand pianos and organs for the performances, co-sponsors the concert with the Festival Teachers Association.

LAURA KAHN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kahn of 29545 Sugar Spring, Farmington, will be featured at a recital Tuesday, May 28, in Detroit's Baldwin Hall. On the program will be works of Chopin, Debussy and Grieg. A student at North Farmington High School, Miss Kahn has studied piano for 10 years. Robert Shulman is presenting the recital.

YWCA Sets FestivalOn Belle Isle

A Festival of Arts is the most art description of this year's YWCA annual city-wide art show. For the first time, other art forms will be added to the painting and sculpture shown in previous YWCA exhibitions.

At 15 minute intervals there will be performances by two folk singing-acted groups, Scottish dancers, Indian dancers and demonstrations by several skilled in the art of yoga.

The Festival of Arts will be entirely free. It is scheduled to be held on the porches and grounds surrounding the Belle Isle Casino on Sunday, May 26, from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

The traditional Belle Isle pleasures of family picnicking, swimming, sunbathing and enhanced by the added attractions of the YWCA shop. In the event of rain, the exhibition will still be held, the casino will afford sufficient protection.

Many artists will demonstrate their techniques in the various media on display, such as watercolor, oil painting, clay, wood carving, etc. All of the over 100 entries in the show will have been executed in the past season by student and teachers in YWCA art classes.
