Marian Lam flew out to Manhattan, Kansas, Friday, May 10, for a long Mother's Day weekend with her mother, Mrs. Smith. She had been a housemother at the college there for many years but has now retired. Marian was very happy to see the delightful apartment her mother is enjoying and to meet the many wonderful friends that keep life happy and interesting for her. Marian flew home Wednesday, May 15.

GRACE AND DICK TAYLOR reached Wood Creek on May 10 after nearly four months on their boat in Florida. The three-day drive home was beautiful but they were glad to get home and relax in our spring glory.

This past Sunday, as Paul and I were driving along Millbrook, whom did we see but Bill Weigman, with Helen and their mothers, out for a walk. Bill looked wonderful and it was great to see him back with us.

The Woodlake PTA held its meeting at the school on Tuesday, May 21, and the following officers were installed: President, Fred Nowland; Father-vice president, Warren Schultz; Mother-vice president Mary Avery; Treasurer, Nancy Knowlton; Secretary, Ann Wapell; Membership, Ann Dugard; Safety, Billie Lee; Publicity, Mary Ellen Greenbury; Hospitality, Donna Lindberg; PTA Representative, Emma MacClen and Teacher-Vice President, Mrs. Joyce Edens.

May was a busy month at this household. Our oldest, Greg, is now a teen-ager; mother and dad celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary; Stevan took part in the spring concert and we got our sailboat launched last Saturday at the Jefferson Beach Marina and now is in its berth at the Crescent Yacht Club.

Our two youngest, Stasia and Dan had a special invitation for the pre-opening at the Zoo and what a time they had seeing the elephant and monkey shows, plus all the other attractions.

Did you by chance watch the Morning Show on Channel 7 just recently. Mario Belanger of Quail Hollow appeared with the Madrigal Chorus. As you may remember, Mario is president of the group and they are looking for solo singers. This group has been invited to tour Europe.

The Women of North Farmington will hold its installation luncheon on Tuesday, May 28, in the LaFiesta Room at the Holiday Inn Motel on Telegraph Rd. Our Lady of Perpetual Help Circle met at the home of Mrs. Noel Stasel at Valley Side Drive.

One of our former neighbors from Peppertill is now in Canterbury Commons.

The Lee McCallums had a wonderful four-day trip to the Bahamas. They flew to the island of the Great Exuma and had a ball.
