

Water Events Headline 1968 Summer Calendar

From Danish delicacies to thundering Gold Cuppers, from strawberry festivals to Van Clijburn, there's something for everyone in Michigan this summer.

The Michigan Tourist Council's just-released June-October Calendar of Events is one of the fullest in Tourist Council history.

Since Michigan is the "Great Lake State," many of the activities are water-connected, like the Gold Cup unlimited hydroplane race on the Detroit River June 30. The Gold Cup is the World Series of the powerboat racing and draws the best and fastest of the rooster-tail-spewing giants.

AT A SLOWER PACE are the canoe races on the Au Sable, Tawas, Huron, Pine and Pere Marquette Rivers. And most colorful is the annual Port Huron to Mackinac sailing race which starts July 13.

Naturally, with water, there's fishing and the calendar lists the 25th annual National Bluegill Fric at Marcellus, June 28-29, with fishing, parades, bands and prizes.

Michigan's newest sport fish, the fighting, exciting coho salmon, will be honored -- literally -- Sept. 28-29 at Honor in Bendle County with the second National Coho Salmon Festival. Michigan is as famous for the automobile as it is for its lakes, and fans of the new and old, slow and fast, will have their days.

THE NEW MICHIGAN Speedway, designed by former world driving champion Stirling Moss and set in the rolling Irish Hills near Jackson, debuts with a 250-mile Indianapolis-type race Oct. 6.

Old car buffs will have their first festival, Sept. 7-8, at Greenfield Village in Dearborn. The old and new combine at Saute Ste. Marie in a summer-long celebration of the 300th anniversary of the first permanent settlement of Michigan's oldest city.

Topping the party are the June 15 dedication of the new Poe Lock, built at a cost of $40 million and able to handle ships with twice the capacity of today's largest lake freighter, and the dedication of the 21-story Shrine of the Missionaries, July 14.

The triple observation tower is the first step in an ambitious complex expected to accelerate tourist interest in the Soo area.

THE CALENDAR also lists centennial celebrations for Greenbush, Wayland and Howard City.

Nationally groups will have their days, too. Among them are the annual Bavarian Festival in Frankenmuth, June 9-15, and Michigan Slovak Day, July 14, in Owosso.

Greenview will be the target of the sweet-tooth set July 26-28, the dates of the Danish Festival with pastries and smorgasbord and a fairy tale parade with Hans Christian Andersen characters among the highlights.

Art lovers and just plain appreciators can choose from shows--and moderately-priced works--at Saugatuck, St. Joseph, Grand Haven, Pentwater, Quincy, Lapeer, Marquette, Wyandotte and the Tawas among others.

The nationally renowned Van Clijburn Concert will be July 6 at Interlochen's National Music Camp.

Terry Towelling Makes Nice Bibs

Bibs of terry towelling make nice gifts for the new baby. If you are not an old hand at cutting out a pattern for the bib, place an oblong china plate upside down on wrapping paper, mark around with pencil and use this as your pattern.

Then cut out the neck hole about 2 1/2 inches from one end. Cut an opening through the back cutting a straight line. Finish by binding with bias tape, leaving the tape extending on each side of the back of the neck for tying.
