

MRS. RAYMOND DAVIS NORTON
(Beverly Ann Routley)

5 Attendants Wear Garden Print Gowns

Five attendants wearing English country garden print gowns with moss green velvet accents preceded Beverly Ann Routley down the aisle when she became the bride of Raymond Davis Norton, April 27.

The wedding took place in the Church of the Redeemer, Southfield, with the Rev. John Osgood Hart officiating. The bride is the daughter of Asil E. Routley and Mrs. Eliza Y. Routley, both of Utica, N.Y. Mrs. Asilward S. Norton, of Beaumont Avenue, Farmington, are parents of the bridegroom.

WHITE ORGANZA fashioned the bride's skimmer gown with detachable wattle train. Venice lace rosettes formed the yoke and accented the skirt, and her veil was secured by a Dior bow with lace accents. She carried white lilies, star of Bethlehem and white tulips in a cascade bouquet.

THE ATTENDANTS were Mrs. Robert Lancaster, as matron of honor, and Jerryvonne Routley, Patricia Norton, Mrs. Wayne B. Balle and Diane Howe, as bridesmaids. They wore velvet bow head-dresses with their print A-line gowns and carried cascades of white lilies and star of Bethlehem.

Assisting the bridegroom as best man was James T. Wilkin, and Joseph Donovan, Terrence Donovan, Walter Loesch and Earl Gotts served as groomsmen. The reception was held in the parish hall.

SQUARE DANCING, guitar strumming, chicken jokes, a hilarity band, bright costumes, haunting folk songs, high stepping dancers and general shenanigans are included in the second half of the concert.

Tickets for the gala will be available at the door, or may be purchased through members or by calling 427-3538.
