

Anne Phillips, MA. 6-6335

Chuck Dynda was married Saturday, May 18, in Our Lady of Sorrows Church. His bride, Kay Rosser, is a girl with whom he went through high school at Our Lady of Sorrows, a lovely Farmington girl. The ceremony was followed by a breakfast for 100 in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Southfield and Eight Mile Rds. In the evening there was a reception with 325 wishing the bride and groom happiness. They then left for their honeymoon in Acapulco, Mexico. On their return Chuck will continue with his landscaping business here.

JIM AND MARILYN BROWN flew to Dallas, Tex., May 12 for the annual Armored Car Convention. Jim was elected national president for this coming year. Of course they went on to Corpus Christi so Marilyn could have a visit with her mother. Marilyn stayed on a few days longer than Jim was able to. She returned Friday morning, May 24.

THE spring dinner dance was wonderful this year as always. Some 85 persons gathered in the Bloomfield Hunt Club for a very fine evening. The dinner was excellent, the dancing a delight. And, best of all, several of our new families in the Hills joined us.

Gilbert and Evelyn Breimjster live at 28209 New Bedford Dr. They moved in last Nov. 1, the second family to move in. They have two boys, Scott, 3, and Mark, 2. They came here from Deerfield, Ill. and Gilbert is director of marketing for the Mohawk Liquor Corp.

Richard and Phyllis Rogers, 28261 Duverne Dr., moved in about a month ago. They have two children, Priscilla Jane is 17 and Charles T. Dek is a trial attorney for the Michigan State Accident Fund.

Next I come to the Ferris family. When I get through listing them you will understand why they bought the big old Dean home—Vince, Vincent and Mary Kay have nine children: Mary Lou 22, Vincent Jr. 20, Joseph 19, Katie Anne 17, Patrick 15, Frances 13, Tommy 10, Virginia 8, and Paul 6. I believe Vincent is in the carpeting business.

Vickie and Bill Patis live at 28022 Waynagh. They have two children, Stacy, 3 and Lesley, 2. Bill is a doctor - an allergist.

Lee and Bill Ortmann live at 28910 South-Alzaret. Bill is an attorney and they have four children: Billy 7, Nancy 6, Murray 4, and Kristy 2.

Charles and Joanne Owen live at 28347 Harwich. Charles is director of sales for the Harwich Glass Co., and they have four girls, Pearlyn 12, Lyn Anne 3, Jacklyn 6, and Lesley 3.

KNOWING these notes may be far from infallible I tried to reach several of you to check myself but I found no one at home. Please call and correct me! Isn't it wonderful to have these fine families part of Wood Creek? We certainly extend a very warm welcome to each and everyone of you.

Canterbury Commons

By JOANNE TAKAI, 626-1786

North Farmington-West Bloomfield Baseball for boys 1968 season is in full swing. Many of our boys of Canterbury Commons play T-Ball, Minors, Majors or Pony League. One wonders whether it is more fun to watch the boys, or just watch the interested and enthusiastic parents in the bleachers who spur the boys on. It is a thrill to watch the youngsters participate so eagerly.

You can't really appreciate baseball unless you've seen a T-Ball session.

WE ARE GRATEFUL to our men who give their time in coaching and managing these boys and make this enjoyable pastime possible.

SPEAKING of enjoyable pastimes, both the Clarkes, of Hargrove Ct., and the Ackermans, of Thornycroft Ct., enjoy showing their English Setters.

The youngsters in the families also participated in a Junior event, which they enjoyed thoroughly.

The Richard Megerians, of Club House Lane, returned recently from a three-week vacation abroad. They visited Beirut, Istanbul, Athens, Rome, Florence, London and Paris and found each city to have a charm of its own. They had a very pleasant and interesting time and are very grateful to the grandparents who generously assisted by taking care of the Megerian children.

Also returned from London recently are Arline and David, of Club House Lane. They also had a marvelous time.

They are the Cheyenne, which has been active for two years, and the Yacca, which has been active for one year.
