

DEDICATION SERVICE — Memorial Day observance at St. Clare Church in Farmington was marked by the dedication of a flagpole in memory of Sgt. Michael J. Francis, a member of the parish who was killed in Vietnam last Sept. 30. Members of the young hero's family participated in the service, which was followed by a special flag raising ceremony and a memorial mass.

Upped In Rank
Joseph E. McClurg, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. McClurg, 5605 Springbrook, Farmington, was promoted recently to Army specialist four while assigned to the 4th Armored Division in Germany. A supply clerk in Company B, 3rd Battalion, 37th Armor, near Erlangen, McClurg entered the Army in February 1966. He is a 1963 graduate of Farmington High School.

Jaycee Women Honored
The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary fared well in state competition at the annual convention held recently in Grand Rapids. Mrs. Pat Nowak, Farmington president, was named one of the top 10 outstanding local presidents in Michigan. Farmington placed third in the competition for the coveted auxiliary of the year award, which was won by Livonia.

In project competition, the Farmington chapter received the following awards: first place in community service for the community health program; first place in ways and means for the puppet show; and third place for community service — "helping hands," state MOR-Novl extension, and ways and means — men's dinner meeting. The chapter also received an honorable mention for its community health program in the project of the year competition.
