

MRS. WILLIAM J. SEIGH
(Cheri-Lynn Tucker)

Newlyweds Make Farmington Home

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Seigh are making their home in Farmington following their recent marriage in the First Methodist Church of Farmington.

Mrs. Seigh is the former Cheri-Lynn Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Tucker, of Lamar Drive, Farmington. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Seigh, of Castleridge Drive, Farmington.

Dr. W. Leslie Williams heard the couple's vows, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

PAMELA PERKINS

The Rev. and Mrs. William H. Perkins, of Royal Oak, formerly of Plymouth, announced at a recent family dinner the engagement of their daughter, Pamela Fay, to Dennis W. Bancroft, son of Mrs. Catherine Bancroft, of Lansing, and the late Wayne Bancroft. The bride-elect is a graduate of Plymouth High School and Western Michigan University, where she majored in speech pathology and was affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority. Her fiancé graduated from Lansing Eastern High School and attended Indiana State University. He recently has returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam. An Aug. wedding is planned.

KAREN HALDY

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Haldy, of Pollyanna Court, Livonia, announced the engagement of their daughter, Karen Ann, to Robert W. Zander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Zander, of Lethrup Village, at a dinner May 12. The bride-elect is a graduate of Southfield High School, attended Henry Ford Community College and is stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., with the U.S. Navy. A formal wedding is planned.

Red Cross Gets 6 New Directors

Six new directors were elected to the board of the Southeastern Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross, it was announced today at the annual meeting by incoming Chapter Chairman Chester E. Blanton.

The six are Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker Jr., of Grosse Pointe; Laurence M. Carino, Birmingham; David L. Helm, Grosse Pointe; Garth D. Renkes, Berkeley; Bernard M. Segner of Detroit and Ray Shapiro of Northville. Mrs. Brucker is the immediate past president of the Junior League; Carino is vice president and general manager of WJBK-TV; Helm, president of Helm, Inc.; Renkes, supervisor of personnel administration, Chrysler Sterling Stamping Plant; Mrs. Segner, active in community affairs is a former president of the League of Catholic Women; and Shapiro, president of Cunningham Drug Stores, Inc.

Principal speaker at the annual meeting was Samuel Kraslow, Director of International Relations for the American National Red Cross, and an active negotiator in recent prisoner-exchange programs particularly those of the Arab-Israeli conflict and the Bay of Pigs invasion.

The Southeastern Michigan Chapter is the nation's fifth largest and is to take an increasingly active role in all community disaster situations.

It services the Wayne-Oakland-Macomb area and supplies more than 50 per cent of the blood needs of these three counties plus St. Clair and Washtenaw.

More than 17,000 volunteers contribute their services and time in various activities including the blood program, safety services, disaster preparedness, home nursing, Red Cross Youth and service to military families.

The bride's mother chose a coat and dress ensemble of pink silk linen, and the bridegroom's mother wore a celery-green silk linen suit.

Following a reception in the church parlor, the couple left for a Canadian honeymoon.

LANA TILGREN

Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Tilgren, formerly of Livonia and now living in Atlanta, Ga., announce the engagement of their daughter, Lana Jean, to Danny Carol Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol F. Bailey, of Marietta, Ga. The bride-elect attended Livonia Schools, including Bentley High, and graduated from Sandy Springs High School in Atlanta. She now is a junior at the University of Georgia. Her fiancé attended the University of Chattanooga, where he was affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity, and also is a junior at University of Georgia. The couple will marry in August in the Peachtree Road Methodist Church, Atlanta.

SUSAN COX

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, of Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Margaret, to Jon Boyd Williams, son of Mrs. H. Boyd Williams, of New Castle, Ind., and the late Mr. Williams. The bride-elect is a graduate of North Farmington High School and is majoring in medical technology at Ball State University. Her fiancé attended General Motors Institute at Flint and is completing his work in mechanical engineering at Tri-State College, Angola, Ind. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. The couple plans to marry Sept. 7 in the First Christian Church, New Castle.
