MRS. CHARLES ALLEN STEVENS JR.
(Linda Anne Brown)

Couple's Vows Are Spoken In Kentucky

Linda Anne Brown and Charles Allen Stevens Jr. were united in marriage in an afternoon ceremony Saturday, June 1, in the First Presbyterian Church of Lexington, Ky.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marion George Brown, of Lexington, granddaughter of Mrs. Ralph James Auger Sr., of Fargington, and niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Westfall, of Farmington; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph James Auger Jr., of Novi, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar W. Auten, of Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen Stevens Sr., of Hazelhurst, Miss., are parents of the bridegroom.

OFFICIATING at the double-ring ritual was the Rev. Richard T. Harrison, and Dr. Brown gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin with oval neckline, empire bodice and elbow-length sleeves of alencon lace. The same lace bordered the hemline and chapel train and fashioned the headpiece holding her bouffant illusion veil. Her flowers were stephanotis and a white phalaenopsis orchid in a cascade arrangement.

THE BRIDE'S SISTER, Susan Elaine Brown, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Jane Eisenman, of Englewood, Colo., Anne Neeley, of Jackson, Miss., Mrs. John Cockerham, of Moline, Ill.; sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Larry Kelly, of Lexington, and Mrs. Meade Brown II, of Lexington.

Their dresses were floor-length aqua textured silk with off-shoulder necklines and back panel effects. Their matching headpieces were silk flowerets and veils, and they carried nosegays of white daisies centered with pink sweetheart roses.

Charles Allen Stevens Sr. served as best man for his son. The ushers were David George Springs, Miss., John Cockerham, of Moline, Ill., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Joel M. Lavi, of Ocean Springs, Miss., John Bricken, of Lexington; Pete Wilson, of Lake Forest, Ill., and David Mattina, of Bloomington, Miss.

MRS. BROWN wore a gown of peach silk glaze with alencon lace accents, and Mrs. Stevens' silk ensemble was in a pale fern green shade.

The reception was held in Spindletop Hall, Iron Works Pike, Lexington.

The newlyweds took a short wedding trip in the south, and will live at Hattiesburg, Miss., where both are students at the University of Southern Mississippi. The new Mrs. Stevens is a senior in education of handicapped children, and her husband, a Vietnam veteran, is studying computer science.

MRS. DAVID E. STEWART
(Bonita J. Williams)

Stewarts Married In Church Of The Savior

Bonita J. Williams became the bride of David E. Stewart in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, May 25, in the Church of the Savior, Livonia.

The Rev. Luther Ratmeyer officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Olen Williams, of Ross Avenue, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart, of New London, Mo., are parents of the couple.

THE BRIDE, given by her father in marriage, wore an empire gown of white silk, with an elbow-length veil. Her flowers were daisies, roses and carnations.

Mrs. Yvonne Chase, as matron of honor, wore a gold brocade dress, also fashioned on empire lines, and carried yellow daisies and red roses. Bridesmaid Cheryl Williams wore yellow silk linen with yellow ribbon trim, and Patti Parker, the other attendant, was similarly gowned in green. Both carried flowers like the matron of honor's.

Thomas Stewart was best man, and the ushers were Lester Martin and Harold Hoogerhyde.
