

Depth Keeps Tigers In Top Spot

Depth in pitching...depth in catching...depth in other departments.

Little wonder the Detroit Tigers show no signs of crumbling from the top of the American League heap.

The temporary loss of Earl Wilson and a congested schedule ordinarily could have brought some tears to Manager Mayo Smith.

But, he went to the bullpen, pulled out John Hiller and Pat Dobson...gave each a starting assignment and both turned in sparkling efforts.

HILLER GAVE the Tigers a split against the Yankees Saturday...and it was Dobson, in his first chance to begin a game, who did the same with 2-0 gem over the Boston Red Sox after the Bronx had won the first game, 2-0.

"It just shows that we are very solid with pitchers," a happy Smith declared when the Tigers opened a home stand against Cleveland Friday night.

The teams end the series

The Tiger Schedule

SUNDAY — Cleveland at Tiger Stadium, 1:30 p.m. (free but day)

TUESDAY — Minnesota at Tiger Stadium, 2 p.m.

WEDNESDAY — Minnesota at Tiger Stadium, 8 p.m.

THURSDAY — Minnesota at Tiger Stadium, 1:30 p.m.

FRIDAY — At Chicago, 9 p.m. (Channel 2)

SATURDAY — At Chicago, 2:15 p.m. (Channel 2)

Sunday when it'll be Bat Day at Tiger Stadium. Each youngster, 14 and under, will receive free a Little League-type bat when he purchases a full-priced ticket.

After Cleveland, Minnesota comes to Tiger Stadium for games Tuesday and Wednesday nights and Thursday afternoon.

Dobson gave up five hits in his shutout after Mickey Lolich had lost in a two-hitter.

In addition to the Hillers and Dobsons, the Tigers also would appear to have a capable replacement for Bill Freehan behind the plate.

JIM PRICE took over in a doubleheader against the Yankees and did an excellent job. He worked one game of the doubleheader against Boston and scored one of the runs in the victory.

"Price helps to make us more versatile," Smith said. "We can use Freehan at first base against left-handed pitchers and thus strengthen our attack."
