The Federated Garden Clubs' annual state convention was held in the home of the National Cherry Festival, Traverse City. A great number of socially prominent Farmington residents attended and had tours of the city; ate cherries, combined in the food recipes at every meal, and were most fortunate to be invited and attend a tea at the Lt. Governor and Mrs. Milliken's splendid residence.

Mrs. Milliken, a most gracious hostess, greeted each guest on arrival and departure. In the heat of the day, it was refreshing to overlook the cool waters, as you sipped punch or tea.

Those attending the convention were housed in the Park Motor Lodge in the heart of the city. Representing the Farmington Garden Club were Dorothy Cassell, Dorothy Gordon, Betty Brown, Mid Wiloughby, Betty Weaver and Jan Dolan. Attending in the name of Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington, were Ruth Trombley, Pat Camp, Pauline Jewsbury, Grace Bulman, Ruth Simmons, Willie Piercecech, Kathy Ziska, Louisa Adams, Kay Cobelli, Marguerite Saly, Nancy Passfield and Jeanne Loe.

At the Awards Luncheon in the Park Place Dining, awards were presented to several District Garden Clubs. The Farmington Garden Club received an award for their Junior Gardeners, The White Pines, Bidsford Garden Club received the Sears Award of $150 for landscaping the Board of Education Building in the area. The shooting of Senator Kennedy, he had to work for 62 straight hours. He and his wife then took their two children into the car and drove straight through to Essex, Ontario, with but one motel stop.

Essex is where Frank's parents live and there Jim and his family had a few days of real rest before coming here to enjoy the Kigar pool and family fun.

Dorothy Janson's father died on June 7. He was taken from the Southfield Nursing Home where he had been for some months to the Haley Funeral Parlor on Northwestern Highway.

The funeral services were held there last Monday afternoon followed by burial at Roseland Park Cemetery. We all extend our sincerest sympathy to Dorothy and the family in this loss.

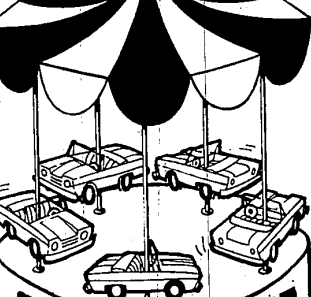

CUS AND MAY Blomberg are spending a little time in Wood Creek. As we all know, they have three homes so their time is very divided.

They, with their son and his wife who live in Detroit, went to the summer home near Oscoda for a long Memorial Day weekend. They are now here all the mood takes them to another home. At this time of year that would probably be back to Oscoda.

FRANK KIGAR's brother, Jim, is an audio engineer for NBC in Los Angeles, Calif. He and his family had planned a trip east to leave on Wednesday June 5. But, with the fatal
