FIRST SEMESTER JURORS CHOSEN FOR STUDENT COURT

The Farmington High Student Council has decided to get the Student Court under way soon. The Council elected the jurors for the first semester from nominations submitted by class presidents. The jurors come from each class. The number is determined by seniority. The junior high has two, freshmen two, sophomores two, juniors three and seniors three.

The Council vice-president is the judge, Jerry Plumb, senior, is the year's judge.

The members of the Student Council will issue tickets for offenses such as throwing paper on the campus, unsportsmanlike conduct, and dirty leechers. C. G. M.

Pep Meeting Gets Keego Game Underway

With a new spark of enthusiasm, Farmington High students went out to support their team in a pep meeting held at the athletic field just before the game.

When the three o'clock bell rang, the students who had purchased tickets for the Farmington vs. Keego Harbor game marched to the athletic field carrying blue and white streamers and "Beat Keego" written on them.

Arriving at the field, the students performed a snake dance and cheered loudly for the Farmington Falcons.

The pep meeting was sponsored by the Varsity Club. J. M.

STUDENT COUNCIL ORGANIZES NEW PEP COMMITTEE

Because of the lack of school spirit and interest displayed at athletic events, the Student Council has organized a pep committee.

The pep committee will be brought to the Council's attention at a recent meeting where both faculty members and students expressed that opinion.

The pep committee will put up posters around school, organize pep rallies, and any other function which will arouse student interest.

The Council, in conjunction with Mr. Harrison, decided to experiment with the idea of letting only students who have game tickets be excused from school early for the pep meeting. A. M.

Plum's Limp Handy For Senior Play Part

The Seniors are going out all to make their play realistic in every detail.

For example, just this past week, Uncle Walter, one of the characters in the play, finally perfected a limp. Previously "Uncle Walter" had found it a difficult job to fake his way.

But now, thanks to a Walled Lake player, Jerry Plumb, "Uncle Walter" is having no trouble.

In the October 7 football game between Farmington and Walled Lake, Jerry pulled the ligaments in his left foot. R. P.

Cross Country Team Suffers First Loss

The Farmington High School cross country team suffered its first league loss Friday when they were beaten by Walled Lake, 26-23.

Powell and Craver were the top runners. Powell was first and Craver was second.

The Falcons' next meet on Tuesday, October 17, was held at Ford. P. J.

Hard Luck Hop Laughs Off Oct. 13

The "Hard Luck Hop", given by the Junior class, had an air of mystery and superstition since it was given Friday, October 13.

Decorations, consisting of 13's, black cats, ladders, and bad luck sayings, were placed on the walls.

A quiz program, "Truth or Consequences", was the main feature of the entertainment. Students who missed had to form a conga line.

Hot dogs, potato chips and coke were served in the cafeteria. N. H.

Junior Varsity Team Loses Third Straight

Farmington High's Junior Varsity lost their third straight game Tuesday, October 10. Walled Lake beat Farmington 18-0 on the local field. The game, scheduled to be played Monday, was postponed until Tuesday because of rain. V. S.

Camera Club Names Officers For 1950

New officers of the camera club are: Jim Keck, president; David Mitchell, vice-president; and Janet Wheaton, secretary-treasurer.

Choir And Glee Club Give 'Cinderella Ball'

A "Cinderella Ball" will be given by the Choir and Glee Club Friday, October 20, at 8:30 p.m. in the gym.

Entertainment will be an enactment of the story of Cinderella. S. M.

Storage Provides Winter Vegetables

With fall coming on and the job of canning at hand, more and more home gardeners are turning toward storage as a means of preserving garden vegetables and fruits.

Though the job of canning can't be underrated, many persons nevertheless feel that storage of vegetables and fruits has been overlooked. It is often the more expensive and requires less work than canning.

An extension service bulletin entitled "Home Vegetable Storage" (Michigan State College, offers many suggestions for home vegetable storage. It gives all the latest innovations in food storage, including construction details for a basement vegetable storage room.

It is available free of charge and may be obtained from your county extension office or by writing the Bulletin Office, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Trip Club Starts With Elections

The Senior Trip Club got into full swing with the election of officers Tuesday, October 10.

Seniors who were interested in joining the Trip Club met in the library at 12:15 to elect officers. They are: G. Hayes, president; J. Keck, vice-president; G. Culham, secretary; and C. Matthews, treasurer.

Students were requested to pay a membership fee which goes toward buying informational pamphlets and bank books for each member. A. G.

Girls' Bowling League Holds First Meeting

The first meeting of the Farmington High girls' bowling league was held Tuesday, October 10.

The officers for the coming year were elected. Helen Sigalla will be president; Carolyn Gardner, secretary; and Alice Miller, treasurer.

Miss Oleschewski will sponsor the league this year. G. F.

Make a bid on a handmade quilt. There will be fancy work and children's clothes at the bazaar, October 21, Town Hall.

Conservation Educators Elect Gearhart President

Conservation educators from all sections of the United States, meeting in Oregon, elected Richard C. Gearhart, assistant chief of the conservation department's educational division, as president of the National Association of Conservation Education and Publicity. The association met at Timberline lodge on Mt. Hood.

William Kah of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources was elected vice president and Jack Culbreth of the Colorado Game and Fish Commission is the new secretary-treasurer.

Glenn MacDonald, editor, and the Bay City Times won the association's national journalistic award.

Who says there are no new frontiers left in this weary old world? There may not be much land left to explore and settle. But television is the "frontier medium" for a new and better understanding among people of all nations. And what bigger and better frontier could there be? Through this great and important "eye of the world" . . . and we are coming to have a greater knowledge of other people and other places. Television makes next door neighbors of folks a thousand miles away . . . whom we could never hope to see and meet in person. It gives us intimate glimpses into other lives and ways of living . . . and this makes for a better informed citizenry. Yes . . . television may well be the key to a better world for all of us.

The BattleShip Missouri is the first man o' war to get a TV set for crewmen. Now the men who make the news can see what's going on in the rear of the world — it figures. It figures, too, that now's the time to get the television set you've been waiting. Later might be too late . . . when supplies are short and prices are higher. Come in and see for yourself the fine Motorola set. It's designed to perfection and geared to give you long-range satisfaction. Of course you can depend on our expert service by skilled technicians. It's always the best in TV at FARMINGTON RADIO-TELEVISION CO., 33304 Grand River. Phone: Farmington 0947.
