PHYLIS AULT BRIDE OF GEORGE
THURSDAY NOVEMBER 16

Phyllis Ault Ault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin D. Ault of 19415 Brentwood, became the bride of George L. Throno November 14 at a double ring ceremony at Clarenceville Methodist Church. Mr. Throno is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Throno of Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Miss Ault is a Northville High School graduate, and has been employed at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company in Detroit. Mr. Throno, a dairy farmer, graduated from Lincoln High in Ypsilanti in 1947.

The couple spoke their vows at 8 p.m. before Rev. Elsie Johns at an altar decked with baskets of white mums and illuminated by candlelight. Mrs. Paul Blue, church pianist, provided music for the wedding, at which Albert Owen sang "Dawning" and "All Through The Year".

Madoff honor at the wedding was Helen Ault, sister of the bride, who wore a rose satin gown trimmed with lace and buttons. She carried plum colored mums, and wore a matching flower headress.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Geneva Carls, a sister of the groom, and Mrs. Helen Sherman, wore mint green satin, lace and button trimmed gowns identical to that of the maid of honor except for color. All carried plum colored mums, and wore headbands of matching flowers.

The bride wore white satin, with portrait neckline, fitted bodice and circular skirt falling in a chapel sweep. Her long nylon veil was held in place by a Juliet cap dusted with orange blossoms. She carried white roses and mums.

Leo Throno, the groom's brother, was best man at the wedding. He wore a tuxedo, and carried a sword. He was assisted by Harold Wright, Harry Arnold and Walter Sherman who were ushers. Little Ruth Ann Omban, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore pale green tulle, made up in a style conforming to the bridegroom's gown, and bore a basket of white mums, with matching flowers in her headband.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Austin Ault, chose coffee tan crepe with brown accessories for the wedding. Her corsage was of red roses. Red roses also were chosen for the groom's mother's corsage. She wore light brown crepe with brown accessories.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Kenneth Owen and Miss Shirley Ault served guests a five-tier wedding cake and other refreshments at a reception held in the church basement.

For their wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the bride wore a green gabardine suit with brown accessories. The couple were at home November 12 at 7515 S. Huron River Drive, Ypsilanti.

Padding Aids Form Declares Expert

Ladies, are your backs getting bilowy bulges? Are your legs falling (tightly)? Are your seats some what sunk? Listen well then to Dr. McGicklin, expert on matters of this nature. He claims that correct padding not only improves the appearance of your chairs and sofas but also their form.

Dr. McGicklin of Farmington Upholstery, 32520 Eight Mile Road West, says his upholstery prices start as low as $25.00 but his upholstery work never stops giving you complete satisfaction. Remember the phone please — Farm. 2402. It's an ad.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Elsie Hyry and Mr. William F. Nicholas was announced October 23 at a reception in honor of the prospective bride at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nicholas of 19444 Brentwood.

Miss Hyry is the daughter of the Edward Hyrys of Champion, Michigan, and is currently employed in Detroit. Mr. Nicholas is a sophomore at Michigan State College. The couple plans to be married August 4, 1951.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA INSTALL OFFICERS NOV. 10

Mrs. Frank Styrz was installed as Regent of Our Lady of Sorrows, Circle 617, Daughters of Isabella, when it held its annual installation of officers Friday evening, November 10, at the Macabees Hall on St. Francis Street.

Also installed were Vice-Regent, Mrs. Leo Oszark; Past Regent, Mrs. Joseph DeNies; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ervin Zimmie; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Beatrice Burke; Treasurer, Mrs. Earl Marx; Trustee, Mrs. William Dwyer; Scribe, Mrs. Bernard Adams; Chaplain, Mrs. Edward Urbanik; Monitor, Mrs. Ervin Bollinger; Custodian, Mrs. Lawrence Kelly; Banner Bearer, Mrs. Ugo Ruzin.

Others installed were: First Guide, Mrs. Bernard Gudzial; Second Guide, Mrs. Mary Lou Dwyer; Inner Guard, Miss Marie Donovan; Outer Guard, Mrs. Ernest Monette; Organist, Mrs. Lewis Whitmarsh.

Preceding the installation ceremonies, guests were presented to the Circle. These included Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh, President of Blue Star Mothers, Farmington; Mrs. Hugh McIntyre, regional vice-president of District Four, Department of Michigan, Blue Star Mothers; Mrs. B. Kelly, state treasurer of the Circles in Michigan; Mrs. J. Kane, Regent of Joan of Arc Circle in Dearborn; Mrs. L. Fuchs, Regent Elect of the Madonna Circles in Detroit; and Mrs. James Martin of Peck, Michigan, who was the first Regent of the Daughters of Isabella. Mrs. Martin served as installing officer.

On Monday, October 30, several members attended the Veterans Hospital to assist our hospital chairman, Mrs. Marion Estes, in putting on a party. Those who attended were Mrs. Estelle Shabinski, Mrs. William Fairley, Mrs. Fred Wendlandt, Mrs. Mary Fox, Mrs. Clarence Reniff, and Mrs. Norman Moore.

Those who were present at the Halloween party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones of Halsted Road on Saturday, October 23, had an enjoyable evening. Many games were played and some old time square dancing was in full swing.

NOBLE PTA NAMES COMMITTEES FOR
"COUNTRY FAIR"

Mrs. Sam Turner, Mrs. C. G. Berni, and Mrs. E. Oke, general chairmen of the Noble School Parents Teachers Association bazaar, have named committees to convert the new Middlebelt School into a "Country Fair" for one day next week. On November 15, booths and festivities reminiscent of the old time fair will be established at the school in the PTA's annual fund-raising effort for the school library.

The group has added innovations of its own to produce a different type of fund raising project to improve the Noble area schools' library facilities. Mrs. Walter Lange is library chairman for the group. Garry and Gilbert Patton, winners on the Starlit Stairway TV show, will play at a square dance in the evening.

Committee workers named by the chairman include Mrs. Carl Matz, Mrs. Edgar Hallock and Mrs. Sidney Hawkins, baked goods; Mrs. Dean Kinsman, Mrs. Leo Kelly, Mrs. B. Dietrich, Mrs. C. Murphy and Mrs. J. Marsh, refreshments; Mrs. W. Zingelman, Mrs. E. Oke, Mrs. D. Adams, soup bar; Mrs. Ralph Borge and Mrs. H. Anderson, green thumb shop; Mrs. N. Hoffman, Mrs. J. Shoukist and Mrs. John Byrne, candy shop.

Other committee members include Mrs. Steve Santa and Mrs. A. Hoffmeyer, specialty shop; Mrs. R. Matson, canned goods; Mrs. C. Hoofnagle, aprons; Mrs. B. Timie and Mrs. Taylor, handkerchiefs.

Operating the Laugh House at the fair will be Mrs. B. Martin and Mr. McCune, assisted by fifth and sixth grade pupils. Aboard the Good Ship Lollipop will be Mrs. Robert Briggs, Mrs. W. Wilson and Mrs. W. Hawkins will dispense popcorn, and Mrs. M. Jentzen, Mrs. R. Lockridge, Mrs. M. Mitchell, and Mrs. Nastrol will operate the movie theater.

In addition to the committee members, Farmington merchants have aided the success of the fair by heavy contributions of merchandise. According to Mrs. Gordon Heyvera, "Their gifts are certainly appreciated by the PTA and the school children who will use the library facilities made possible by the merchants' contributions."

A Salem, Massachusetts mechanic, on visiting Pittsburgh in 1917, offered this comment: "Coal makes the best fire I ever saw, equal to the best walnut wood."

ROBERT RANEY WEDS
IRENE WASILEWSKI
NOVEMBER 4

Miss Irene M. Wasilewski of Hamtramck became the bride of Raymond A. Raney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Raney of 45081 11 Mile Road, November 4 at a ceremony performed at St. Ladislau's Church.

Bridesmaids at the wedding were Mary V. Brys and Genevieve Levulis of Hamtramck. Best man was Norbert Bunker of Detroit, a cousin of the groom, and Richard Yandich, also of Detroit, was usher.

Mr. B. Zegianczyn performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of baby mums centered with giant yellow mums.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Joseph Alaszewski, wore a long white satin gown with hoop skirt, scalloped neckline outlined with tiny seed pearls, fitted bodice and long sleeves. Her white satin cloche outlined with seed pearls held in place a fingertip veil.

The bride's mother, Mrs. M. Wasilewski, wore navy blue crepe and bore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore navy blue lace with navy accessories and pink roses.

Members of the Sodality of St. Ladislau's parish escorted the bride to the altar. Following the exchange of vows, the bride's Sodality medal was removed by the Prefect. A reception honoring the bride was held at the P. L. A. V. Post 10 Hall in Hamtramck, where 200 guests were served a chicken dinner. Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. They will be at home to their friends at 45081 11 Mile Road, Northville, after November 18.

VENISON USE DESCRIBED IN NEW STATE BOOKLET

How to make the best use of that deer meat bagged this hunting season is explained in a venison recipe booklet available from Michigan State College or the state conservation department.

The revised booklet particularly is of value to the new deer hunter entering the field for the first time.
