ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

"The toughest part of living on a small income, a June bridegroom told us the other day, "Is to keep from spending

We don't know how many of you followed our advice last week, to write your Congress-man or Senator a letter asking man or Senator a letter asking for a longer time to finish the payments on your new car, but if the law is to be changed, it's up to you to do it. We figure that when a customer has made a third down payment on any a third down payment on any new car, the surplus coin in his change pocket has been pretty well used up. Thus, Uncle Sam need not worry about inflation spending from that particular source for some time to come.

Paris reports, according fashion notes, that next year's bathing suits will be so scanty that wearers will get tanned exactly where they ought to be

The new Studebaker, "the one for '51" is still a couple of weeks away from arriving on the market, so we suggest that in the meantime you be sure your old car is conditioned to take the coming cold weather. Have our experts give it a shot of winter the weeks of the uspication, plus a gallon or two

We get a bang out of listening to politicians, before election. They always tell us the people are okay and very much to be trusted. Then we go to some super market and cault find a politician in the place. They (the supermarket) insist we pay cash before we carry.

Incidentally, we hope that you won't let old demon road salt get at the metal parts of your car this winter. A thin coating of rubberized material sprayed on the underparts of your car will just laugh at metal-eating old demon galt. We're experta, at applying it, too. Bring the car in.

We read recently that some statistician figured that wives get 60% of the divorces granted in this country. He forgot to mention that they also got 100% of the alimony.
