By MRS. NORMAN MOORE
21719 Jefferson, Phone 2782-J

Jefferson Street seems to be deserted these days with so many away enjoying deer hunting. So far, no game has been reported bagged.

Those who are enjoying hunting are Mr. and Mrs. William Manning, who are up at Mio with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sevel of Brattle Street, Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. James Manning are up in northern Michigan.

Mr. William Baroun of Jefferson Street took Troop 35 on a hike Saturday out behind Spicer's place. The purpose of this hike was to allow the Scouts to complete their First Class cooking requirements.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moore are up at Beulah, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Throne, whose marriage was an event of November 4, have returned from their honeymoon journey and are now established in their home near Ypsilanti. During their trip they visited several points of interest in the east and were guests one day of the bride's uncle, Lester Ault, and family near Washington, Pennsylvania.

Arthur Mair's mother from Detroit was his guest last week end. Little Linda, youngest of the Moirs, has been ill with an ear infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Stevens and their three children, from Detroit, were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mrs. Stevens' father, F. Bröque, on Norfolk.

David McKillen from Detroit was the guest last Friday and Saturday of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Magnus of Shadyside Avenue.

Mrs. Leslie Bolyard of Hubbard Avenue is still a patient under observation at University Hospital, in Ann Arbor, and members of the family have been visiting her. Mrs. Bolyard expects to undergo surgery before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hardy and their youngest son were dinner guests last Sunday of Mr. Hardy's mother, Mrs. Christina Rehahn on Mayfield.

Mrs. William Allen of Detroit was the guest last week end of her son John Allen and his family on Mayfield Avenue. The former's home was damaged considerably by fire last Saturday.

Mrs. Lily Sheets of Columbia City, Indiana is now the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Homer Coolman and her family on Shadyside. Mrs. Sheets, who has been very ill, is gradually regaining her strength.

A family party honoring the birthday of Mrs. Stanley Chavey was held at the Chavey home on Mayfield Avenue Monday evening. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Chavey left for a few days of deer hunting in northern Michigan.

While teachers attended the funeral of Mrs. Merlen Adams, wife of Pierpin School's bus driver and janitor, school children were dismissed last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. William Sherman of Mayfield Avenue was attending a brother-in-law's funeral in Detroit last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rehahn from Archdale Avenue, Detroit, were calling on their aunt, Mrs. Christina Rehahn on Mayfield Avenue, last Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Willet and daughter Joanne of Mayfield Avenue are spending this week end hunting in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson and their four children visited with Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Joe Byers and her family near Lansing last Sunday.

Friends hear that Mrs. John Jones of Detroit is very ill. Mrs. Jones is the former Virginia Pursi, who for many years resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fuerst on Shadyside Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Sofus Persson of Filmore Avenue recently attended a party given at the Danish home in Rochester.

Arthur Bandelow of Seven Mile Road is spending two weeks at Lakerne, Michigan.

Duane Shaffner from Farmington Road was the guest last week end of Jack Kenner, at Albion.

Jessie Ziegler and his son Gerald are deer hunting in northern Michigan this week.

Leroy Bachang and his son Robey have been hunting near Atlanta, Michigan.

Charles and Norman Bolyard of Parker Avenue, their brother, Jerry Bolyard, of Hubbard Avenue, and their brother-in-law, Robert Young, of Farmington are hunting deer together in northern Michigan.

Friends hear that Harry Houghlin, formerly of Mayfield Avenue and now a resident of Plant City, Florida, has been enjoying a vacation visit in California.

Mrs. George Houts of Farmington Road visited her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Houtz, near Ypsilanti Wednesday.

Albert Sara, Farmington Road, is with the deer hunters in northern Michigan.

Dale Hardy, from Wayne, was the luncheon guest Wednesday of his grandmother, Mrs. Christina Rehahn on Mayfield Avenue.

Rev. Gordon Caramon from Redford was calling in the Folker sub last Saturday evening.

Miss Wanda Graham, Mayfield Avenue, was the overnight guest last Wednesday of friends in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser of Huntington Woods, and their house guest, Mrs. Arthur Bosley from Akron, Ohio, were calling Thursday evening at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault on Mayfield Avenue.

Mrs. Gerald Roberts was hostess at a brunch demonstration breakfast given at her home on Mayfield Avenue last Thursday morning.

Neighborhood Sunshine Sisters held their annual fall potluck luncheon last Wednesday in the Neighborhood meeting house. The hunting season with at least three women active in the group off hunting in northern Michigan, interested greatly with the attendance, but a dozen ladies and several children got together. Devotional services followed the luncheon. Plans were made for the Christmas season. Mrs. Ira Magnus was named Christmas fund treasurer to care for donations to be used in providing a Christmas gift for each of the Neighborhood Bible School pupils.

The next Sunshine meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, November 23, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Maynard Horton will provide cake for the social hour.

A "Card Shower" is on for the next Sunshine meeting. Get well, cheer, and friendship cards are especially desired.

A sudden combination of circumstances caused the Neighborhood Church to open last Sunday at 4 p.m. instead of 7 as had been announced, and this hour for service will probably hold good all during the winter season.

Last Sunday a group was on hand to hear Rev. Cameron speak. William Griffith, from Farmington, had charge of the music and pleased greatly with several vocal renderings.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Slevin and their four children from Akron, Ohio, are guests for the week end of their cousins, the Edwin Johnsons, on Clarita.

Harold McVicar of Shadyside Avenue is another of our local men up north hunting deer this week.

U. S. bituminous coal mines are the most highly mechanized in the world.

First Lady Calls Local Store

The first lady telephoned Farmington Upholstery, 32420 W. Eight Mile Road, yesterday afternoon at about 12:30. She put the call through from the white house on North Elm Drive to see if the $150.00 sofa upholstery special was still in progress.

After the first lady called, a second and third lady also called regarding the special and as a result Farmington Upholstery has extended the time limit to six more days. During that time they reupholster and recover sofas for as low as $150.00.

Mr. McGlocklin would like to remind you that upholstering costs less only when you get the best. Remember the phone please, Farm. 2042. It's an ad.

We Give Thanks

On this truly American holiday we give thanks for the many blessings He has deigned to deliver on us. We give thanks for the strength He had endowed us with, enabling us to preserve those liberties we have inherited. We thank Him for the rich fields and bustling factories that bring us great wealth and comfort. And we thank Him especially for revealing His truth to us, giving the greatest wealth of all.
