Student - Teacher Tea

Given By Library Club

In observance of National Book Week, the Library Club gave a tea after school November 29 at 3:45 p.m.

Coffee, cocoa, and cookies were served to the teachers and the club members.

The books which were on display during the week could be purchased by students and townspeople. Club members were so encouraged with the selling that next year's Club may repeat the Book Fair. S. L.

FARMINGTON HOLDS DEBATE MEET: SIX SCHOOLS HERE

Six schools participated in a debate meet held at Farmington November 29 in rooms 9, 10 and 11 in the high school.

Both the affirmative and the negative teams from each of these schools (Northville, Holly, Milford, Walled Lake, Clawsonville, and Farmington) debated once. Opponents were chosen by pulling names out of a hat.

The two Farmington teams, Myrna Hurkett and Donald Stephan on the affirmative and June Turner and Charles Tulp on the negative, defeated both Walled Lake Team and Northville's affirmative team. Milford's affirmative team beat Northville's negative.

The two Clawsonville teams, defeated both Holly's, and Farmington's. The judges for the debates were Mr. Harris, director of debating at Lansing Eastern; Mr. Maundner, and Mr. Sponeberg, teachers from Michigan State College.

Farmington's second squad, Sue Rande, Lora Dowding, Tom Laley and Lee Barthel, acted as chairman and timekeeper.

Their debates ran from 4:00 to 9:00. A specially prepared dinner was served to the debaters in the cafeteria.

Plans for another debate meet on December 7 at Walled Lake are being made. R. P.

Choosing Courses Made Easier By Survey

Many students have the trouble in high school of choosing the right classes. Presumably, the seniors are in the best position to offer an opinion on various high school subjects.

With this idea in mind, 18 seniors were interviewed in order to find what subjects they would have taken in addition to those which they did.

The results are as follows:

- Ginger Fryhoff, all language courses offered.
- Paul Jones, Spanish and algebra.
- Joyce Ginnert, biology, algebra II, and shorthand II.
- Sally Lutz, choir, gym and Spanish II.
- Dick Yukum, English IV.
- Gail Jalasiewicz, algebra II.
- Gabrielle Muhling, shorthand.
- Judy Henry, solid geometry and trigonometry.
- John P. Jones, physics, chemistry, and all mathematics offered.
- Rita Pickett, typing and shorthand.
- Joyce Ginnert, biology and algebra.
- Jim Mechem, biology and all mathematics offered.
- Jean Martindale, Spanish II and chemistry.
- Doh Clark, biology and all business courses offered.
- Adeline Walters, typing II.
- Jim Yull, all science courses offered, English IV, and all foreign languages.
- Dorothy Orofino, chemistry and biology.

These same seniors were also asked what subjects they had taken which they felt had not measurably contributed to their high school education.

Many students said civics was unnecessary because the same material was to be learned in American government which is required of all pupils. C. G.

Speech Students Practice Before Class Audiences

"Speaking before strange audiences is necessary training for speech students," said Mrs. Geraldine Brock, Farmington High speech director. She has asked the faculty to allow students to give speeches in their classes for extra practice.

Mrs. Brock feels that when students get familiar with their audience they become too relaxed and often careless. "Part of speech training is learning to deliver a speech well, before any type audience," she added.

In the future, Mrs. Brock is planning to have interested students give their speeches in classrooms where the speech will correspond with the subject of the class. G.F.

TRIP CLUB INVESTIGATES POSSIBLE OVERLAND ROUTES

The Trip Club chose a committee to investigate possible trips for this year's seniors.

The committee, A. Miller, chairman, S. Lutz, J. Ginnert, M. Petersmark, J. Quisenberry, and A. Cunningham, is looking for an overland route in addition to the usual boat trips to the Great Lakes.

A letter from the Youth Travel Company stated that schools which have previously used their services will receive first priority on trips. Reservations must be in by November 27 if the seniors wish to go by the water route. A. C.
