During the last week and, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. L. Johnson and their four children visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts in Monroe.

Mrs. Florence Jones and her son Bobby from Farmington Road, were visiting Santa Claus in Detroit last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wagner were in Detroit last Saturday visiting their grandson, David McMillan, who is convalescing from a serious illness.

Mrs. Floyd Dulmage, of West Eight Mile Road, has been convalescing from a flu attack.

Mr. V. Reddy, who was ill in bed last week, has now returned to his employment.

Mrs. Christina Rehahn, who has been ill with pneumonia, seems somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thorne from Ypsilanti were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault on Brentwood last Sunday.

Mrs. Forrest Ault and Miss Shirley Ault were visiting in Dearborn last Monday.

Mrs. V. Reddy was a visitor in Detroit last Thursday.

Mrs. William Griffith from Dearborn was the week end guest of her mother, Mrs. E. W. Stange.

Ruth Ann Oman of Brentwood Avenue is spending the week end with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Thorne, near Ypsilanti.

Critical illness of her father, William Bamble, called Mrs. Edward Luonen to St. Louis, Michigan, last Sunday. She returned during the week. The elderly man is now much improved and as soon as able may be brought to the Inocan home on Hubbard Avenue, where in recent years he has spent much of his time.

Albert Hardy, with his youngest son from Wayne, spent Friday with his mother, Mrs. Christina Rehahn.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brugnman and their two sons, from Norwayne, were guests last Sunday of Mrs. Brugnman's mother, Mrs. James Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault were calling in Northville Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong, who was on the sick list several days, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sidelink spent last Monday in Detroit.

Miss Francis Kauranen of Mayfield Avenue was the guest last week end of relatives in Detroit. Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Wesley Smith, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Eight Mile Road, and Miss Inez English, of Farmington. The wedding is to take place in the Farmington Methodist Church on Saturday evening, December 16.

Herman Schult, Shadydale Avenue, made the trip to Indiana and back last week end.

A Lincoln car and its garage, on Meridian, went in smoke last Thursday evening.

Livonia Goodfellows were busy selling their newspapers last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult and daughter Janet, and Mrs. Marietta Wyman and children Bobby and Sharon, were all visiting Santa Claus in Detroit Saturday.

Shirley Ault was a downtown Detroit visitor Saturday.

Miss Ina Mae Tallman is home from Bethel College, Indiana. Her marriage having been announced for December 30, two bridal showers for her were held. Church members of the Brightmore Christian Missionary Church gave her one Friday evening, and neighbors and old friends tendered her another in the Neighborhood meeting house Saturday evening.

A story shower honoring Mrs. Ralph Dasey was held at the home of Mrs. Dasey's parents, the Harrisons, on Eight Mile Road Friday evening. Relatives, for the most part, made up the guest list. Numerous dainty layette things were presented and admired. Lunch was served at the end of the party.

Residents of this community are expressing a great deal of interest in the presentation of the "Messiah", to be given December 16 at 8 p.m. in Bentley High School. The Livonia Civic Choir, made up of 100 voices and accompanied by the Symphony Orchestra, will be the producers. Women taking part will be given in beautiful formal and everything possible will be done to make the event outstanding.

Friends hear that the Carroll family, who for many years lived on Mayfield Avenue, but now reside in Ann Arbor, are moving shortly to Salsman, Corrine, their second daughter, was married December 9.

Robert Hunter and daughter Mary Margaret, of Detroit, were Thursday evening guests of Mr. Hunter's mother, Mrs. M. E. Ault on Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Voorhees of Shadydale Avenue have been having some improvements made on their home.

Brownies, Cubs and Scouts are making up Christmas presents for their parents.

Dinner was late in most of our homes last Thursday evening. The condition of the streets slowed down all kinds of traffic so that workers returning home were held up considerably.

A nice group attended the service in the Neighborhood Meeting House last Sunday afternoon. During the winter season this place is open every Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m.

As an attendance award, Miss Patty Schult received a volume of Bible Stories at the Neighborhood Bible School last Sunday.

The Neighborhood Bible School has received, with much appreciation, the gift of a framed Christmas nativity from the Sunshine Lady.

Children of the Neighborhood Bible School are reminded that their annual Christmas party will be held in the Neighborhood Meeting House on Friday evening, December 15, at 7 p.m. Each girl should bring a gift suitable for a girl and each boy one suitable for a boy. No gift should be more than 25c in value. They cannot bear a name. They will be drawn by the number method, so that each youngster may have a gift to take home. Parents are invited to accompany their children.
