Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault, Shady-side Avenue, were New Year's Eve guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser in Huntington Woods.

Hannah, youngest daughter of the Edwin Johnsons on Clarita, is convalescing from illness.

Ervin Dohlinger, who was under observation at one of the local hospitals for several days, has returned home and is doing nicely.

Charlotte Brown of Detroit, Michigan, is convalescing satisfactorily from a tonsil operation performed a week ago.

The Austin Aults of Brentwood Avenue were New Year's Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Thorne, near Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ingram of Farmington Road attended a 60th wedding anniversary for friends in Detroit on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barrett of Irving Avenue spent New Year's Day with friends in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Shaffner of Farmington Road entertained 14 guests at supper New Year's Day.

The Dumas of Farmington Road had a nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Torrence Duffy from Grand Rapids, as house guests during a part of the holiday season.

Edward Stange, Jr., is still much "under the weather" with flu complicated by asthma.

Mrs. James Simpson, Mayfield Avenue, was with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Anderson and family on Gill Road, for New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Altman were dinner guests last Sunday of the Rudy Altmans in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stollender of Mayfield Avenue were dinner guests last Sunday of relatives in Ferndale. New Year's Day they spent with a daughter and her family in Detroit.

Karen, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grundy of Hubbard Avenue, is now convalescing satisfactorily from her long siege with rheumatic fever, and if proper transportation is made available, may return to day school the latter part of this month.

George W. Sandus of Hubbard Avenue is convalescing from a severe attack of flu. His two youngest daughters, Linda and Audrey, are now both ill.

Frankie, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Walt, Farmington Road, is the guest of his grandparents in Cleveland for a month.

Mrs. Leslie Bolyard, of Hubbard Avenue, was calling in University

Hospital, Ann Arbor, last Thursday morning. Mrs. Bolyard is making satisfactory progress in her convalescence after an operation performed in late autumn.

Virgil, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Houltz of Farmington Road, is ill.

Kenneth Houltz and Jerry Bolyard were recent overnight visitors in West Branch.

Friendship—Four Thousand Miles Apart

Never quite got the hang of how to play chess myself, but I'll say this for the game—it started one of the strongest friendships I know of; between Dad Wilson in our town and a fellow in Sudbury, England.

The two of them have never met or seen each other—but for eight or nine years they've been playing chess by mail together. Dad puzzles over the Englishman's latest letter, takes a couple of days to think it over, and then scribbles a chart of his next move.

George Torrance Takes Utility Course

Recruit George F. Torrance of 33952 Robinswood, assigned to the 46th Engineer Construction Battalion, is attending the Quartermaster School at Fort Lee, Virginia.

Torrance will attend the Utility Repairman Course which consists of training in elementary house wiring, sheet metal working, plumbing, carpentry, blacksmithing and welding.

He will return to the 46th Engineers after completing the 8-week course.

GETS PURPLE HEART

Corporal Herbert L. Roemke of Company K, 31st Infantry Regiment, has been awarded the Purple Heart at the 155th Station Hospital, Yokohama, Japan, for wounds received in action against the enemy in Korea.

'Europe's New Look' Is Town Hall Topic

"Europe's New Look"—from Paris to Rome—is the title of the colored film which Dr. Dudley Crafts Watson, famous world traveler, will show at Detroit Town Hall Wednesday morning, January 17, at 11 o'clock.

The movies to be flashed on the screen at Fisher Theatre, while Dr. Watson acts as narrator, were taken during the summer and fall.

Dr. Watson is a staff member of the Chicago Art Museum, and a staff lecturer for the Institute.
