Barbara Jean Diehr And Lloyd Wilson Wed Saturday At Radio Temple

The Radio Temple, 12 Mile and Gardner in Berkley, was decorated with white roses and carnations Saturday for the wedding of Barbara Jean Diehr and Lloyd Wilson. Rev. H. E. Weitzel performed the 7 p.m. wedding.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Diehr of 27370 Highway, has been employed by Sears at the Highland Park store. She is a 1950 graduate of Farmington High School. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilson of 25011 Lincoln, Southfield Township, is also a 1950 Farmington High School graduate, and is now employed at the Box and Carton Manufacturing Company in Highland Park.

The bride wore a white satin gown with lace top for the double-ring wedding. The gown had full length sleeves with tiny satin buttons. Her white nylon veil was topped with a crown trimmed with chrysanthemums. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

Mrs. Grace Wilson, the bride's sister-in-law, was matron of honor. She was gowned in yellow tulle and tulle, and carried pink roses. Virginia Wilson, a sister of the groom, and Arlene Diehr, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were gowned in orchid and light green tulle, respectively, and carried yellow roses.

Martin Wilson, the bridegroom's uncle, was best man, and Don Wilson and Raymond Diehr were ushers.

Blue flowered crepe with black accessories and white calligraphy composed the costume of the bride's mother, and the groom's mother chose royal blue crepe with black accessories and white calligraphy for the wedding.

The bridegroom's father, Glen Wilson, sang "I Love You Truly" at the ceremony, for which John Seaback, gowned in blue tulle, was flower girl.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Community Hall in Ferndale.

Laundry Modernization Completed

Complete laundry facilities, using the most modern and efficient methods available, have been installed at the Master Service Cleaning and Laundry plant at 27555 Grand River. The plant (above) houses new washing machines, extractors, driers, a flatwork ironer, and a two-minute shirt ironing machine. All laundry is washed in net nylon bags, pinned with a foolproof method of identification. The laundry operation is carried on in addition to the dry cleaning work done at the plant.

Sandra's Sandwich Shop Completes Redecoration

New antique satin drapery and potted plants adorn Sandra's Sandwich shop since interior decoration of the establishment has been completed.

New coral wallpaper with a silver and gold design matches the coral and mirror soda bar. "Soft white" fluorescent fixtures illuminate the entire restaurant, which has been repainted in shades of coral and grey.

Even the kitchen has undergone similar work and shelves covered with inlaid linoleum. New lighting fixtures were also installed to complete the renovation of the restaurant in a modern pattern.

HOSPITAL CHILDREN SEE CIRCUS GIVEN BY PATIENTS

The patients and staff of the Michigan Children's Convalescent Hospital saw a circus Friday evening. The circus was given by the boy and girl patients on the second floor of the hospital, who planned and presented the circus under the supervision of Miss Patricia, Flushing, Girl Scout leader at the hospital.

A circus was studied before presentation of the show, and miniature figures, animals and scenery were made and set up on small tables. Side shows included a fire eater, a bearded lady, a snake charmer, hula dancers, a mermaid, the world's tallest lady, a three-headed man, a three-headed woman, a tattooed man and Siamese triplets. Mrs. Ann Saltzberger was ringmaster.

Each patient made up as an elephant and a staff member as a tiger entertained the group. The patients made their own money, tickets, and costumes. Girl Scout Senior Troop 172 assisted by bringing up the tents, arranging scenery, making up the children, and cleaning up after the show.

Floral Park Civic Group Names 1951 Committees

Standing committees were named Monday night by the Floral Park Civic Association's Executive Board at its first meeting, held at the Floral Avenue home of Don McElroy.

Named to the membership committee were Frank Nicholls, Homer Blinn and James Laker. New members of the restriction committee are James Shaugnessy, Ralph Kieles and Mark Sitts. On the entertainment committee are Jack Cotton, Ralph Shepard and Thomas Hangle. The improvement committee members are Ralph Shepard, James Cavanaugh and William Burke.

A spring membership campaign and the general social program for 1951 were discussed at the board meeting. Officers of the group are Don McElroy, president; William Burke, vice president; Robert Larson, secretary; and John Berling, treasurer.

Next meeting of the board, open to Floral Park residents, will be held at the McElroy home March 5.

visors at the high school and at the Central and Edgewood Elementary Schools. These officials will be responsible for setting up a procedure in case of emergency. This program will also be coordinated with the overall planning of the County School Superintendents.

In addition to the appointment of school leaders, an accelerated program of first aid for teachers and students will be initiated with Schmidt, superintendent, stated that this is intended to give the children more confidence as well as being useful information in case of emergency. Various materials made available through the various county health departments and the Red Cross will be used.

Land O'Goshen, Paw!

I never knew a man to take so long to git ready to go to town. The water in the tea kettle has been boilin' fer 15 minutes. You aint gonna have enuf left to shave with if you don't hurry some. Since I sed I'd have the Qultin' Bee here this week end seems like I aint done nuthin' but hurry - hurry - hurry. The day I was supposed to churn I washed the curtains in the parlor so I wanna stop to Conroys and git some of that new-fangled Parkay colored oleomargarine. They're havin' a special on it fer jest 35c a lb. They're also gonna have fresh dressed roastin' chickens fer 53c a lb. and chicken would be kinda nice fer Sunday dinner. Maybe I'll have the kids come out Sunday. I hate to dress any of mine cause they're layin' so good. We should git some of that fresh ground beef they have there fer 67c a lb. too. If we stay in town very long we can git a quick supper with that and a can of beans. We can git a couple cans of Campbell's pork and beans fer 25c. Say Paw - you know all those vegetables we stashed away in the root cellar are just about gone and seems to me we oughtta grab off a dozen cans of those Quaker sugar melting peas. They're only $2.10 a dozen and that's a hull lot easier than pickin' and huskin' 'em. Have yuh got the extra two bucks Paw? I got the ten cents.
