Around The Block

SLIPPIN' AND SLIDIN'.

that's the weather report for this week. At least, that is what everybody was talking about Tuesday and Wednesday. And if you had to journey out, either in a car or on foot, you know why. On our little excursion down Grand River, we had the opportunity to see a number of near misses as cars silpped and sild. Of course, on Monday we had a bit of jolly old London with fog so thick you could cut it if you had a sharp knife. So take your pick. We can't make up our minds—except that we will be glad when spring arrives. According to the weatherman that appears to be a long way off, so take it easy, very easy.

WALLEST AND NOTICED.

What the winter has done to Grand River down through the center of town? If you haven't you have a lot more air under that family buggy than we have. It's rough, to put it mildly. Workmen were hard at it during the week trying to fill up the low spots, but it looks to us like a pretty hopeless cause. It has been another rough winter, and it isn't over yet. We have near heart failure every once in a while when a big semt truck rolls through the main intersection of town. We get the idea it is rolling alright but not on 18 wheels.

VOID HAVE GOT TO HAND IT.

10 Farmington's Volunteer Fire Fighters, they have a rough, rugge job and they do it. Whether it's five below zero, raining buckets ful or hot enough to five eggs on the sidewalk, they are on the job. In the case of last Wednesday evening it mercury was really down ther and the wind was blowing right through you, but when that fir whistle blew they were out of a warm house and on that truck. W struggled out to 12 Mile Road after the truck and stayed just lone enough to shake ourselves just about inside out and left. But the stayed right there on the job. You have really got to hand it to then on this front page we are urging you to vote in the Townsh Primary Election this Monday, February 19. If it seems that vare repeating ourselves a little often, it's all on purpose. We wou repeat ourselves a bundred times if we thought it would bring few more people out to vate every time we did it. This voti business is serious or should be with every registered voter in t Township. The decline in the voting responsibility of the individuals every conscientious American worried. It isn't funny!

FOR THE THIRD TIME...
