It's a rare TV audience these days that isn't regularly exposed to the modern "theatrics" of "rassling." You know it. It's that ancient art of matching muscles... of getting and breaking... of whistles, catcalls and loud booms. Kids and parents alike line up to watch the wrestling.

The sports editor would not feature wrestling because the entertaining appeal of the old feature wrestling has been replaced by the more exciting appeal of the old feature wrestling. They pick their heroes... boo their villains. And they know all along who's going to win. It's no wonder one metropolitan newspaper editor found a snapple on his hands.

The sports editor would not feature wrestling because it belonged in the "drama" department. And the drama editor would not feature wrestling because it belonged in the sports department. In either case... there's no end of fun and amusement in watching the "grouners" on TV.

Of course when you buy a television set... you'll insist on the famous RCA VICTOR. Because you know you can depend on that famous RCA quality. It's the best in the latest engineering developments. It gives you clear, sharp focus thru the famous eye-witness synchronizer. It's proved by over a million American families. And it's your best bet for a good buy. See it now... and depend on our expert installation and service at FARMINGTON RADIO TELEVISION CO. 33304 Grand River. Phone Farmington 0047.

SWEETHEART SWAY VALENTINE DANCE HELD SAT. NIGHT

The Sophomores put on the yearly Valentine Jukebox dance last Saturday night. The name, "Sweetheart Sway", stressed the theme as did the decorations.

For decorations, red and white streamers were strung from the two end baskets to the floor, forming a circle. A Valentine box was in the center. Valentines were placed in such a way as to spell out, "Be Mine", and Valentine decorations were scattered on the walls.

The entertainment consisted of a girls' triple trio. They sang, "Nevertheless", and "Thinking of You". A boys' quartet sang, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart", and "Just A Dream of You Dear".

Ken Schoenlein sang "Be My Love" and Loren Clifford played "The Old Piano Roll Blues" and "The Music Musing on the Piano". Joanne De Nels tap danced to "Nevertheless" and "Bash Street Blues".

Lou Dowling was Master of Ceremonies. Mr. Henderson was the master of the singing and dancing numbers.

Ice cream, cookies, and pop were served for refreshments.

The advisors for the dance were Mr. Henderson, Mr. Benjamin, Mrs. Henderson, Mr. Timmons and Miss Olszewsky. N. H.

Antioch Representative Visits Farmington High

Professor Arthur Lithgow, a representative of Antioch, told of the workaday plan of the college and gave a monologue from Shakespeare's "Macbeth" at Farmington High last Thursday.

The presentation was made before the English IV class and other interested Seniors.

Professor Lithgow, member of the English department at Antioch, gave the general aims of the college.

He differentiated Antioch from most other colleges in that students are given vocational training in their field as part of the college work. Students go to school a term, then work a term, then return to school again.

The first part of the program will consist of a film on intercultural understanding and a reading on America.

Following this, there will be a Rumor Clinic in which eight students will participate. Because of the nature of the Rumor Clinic, no information can be given before its completion. This portion of the program will be presented by the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith, and the Jewish Labor Committee.

Gerald Plum is chairman for this program. J. M.

THEY'RE CHAMPIONS, TOO

For two successive years Farmington has had champions. It has not only won the state basketball title, but it has also won the state wrestling title.

Their success is due to the hard work and dedication of their coaches and athletes.

The basketball team, coached by Mr. [Name], has won the state title for the second year.

The wrestling team, coached by Mr. [Name], has won the state title for the second year.

Advancement Of 1800's Shown In Craft Display

A display showing the development and inventions made during the 1800's was given at the library-showcase.

The projects were made by the eighth grade social studies classes under the direction of Mr. Glison.

The most outstanding projects were a newspaper covering the main events of the 19th century, which was written by Jane Gringer, and a cabinet completely furnished, which was made by Merl Powell and Bonnie Sovereign.

Other contributors were George Oulden, Don Savors, Pat Martin, Clara Moss, Dick Souterland, Frank Sundrala and Bob Adamson. C. G.

Jefferson Jottings

By MRS. NORMAN MOORE
2179 Jefferson, Phone 2762-J

Mr. Alex Clark of Hamilton celebrated his 51st birthday on Wednesday, February 14, at a party with his family and a few friends.

Mr. George Dempsey of Middlebelt spent the past week in New Jersey on a business trip for his company.

Congratulations are in order for little Davey Lipke, who was one year old this week. His folks gave him a party to celebrate the occasion. Davey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morey Lipke of 21229 Rockwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street are the proud parents of a nine pound, four ounce baby boy who arrived Sunday morning, February 11, at the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital. Mother and baby are reported doing fine.

A stork shower was given on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Don McAkina of Hawthorne honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Carroll. Seventeen guests were included many from Windsor and Detroit. After several games, a delicious luncheon was served. One table was adorned with a beautifully decorated show of parcels of yellow trimmed with various colored ribbons. This was placed above the many gifts while on a separate table a big stork stood beside a beautifully decorated cake.

We wish to welcome our new neighbor, Mrs. Estelle Sjahom, to our neighborhood.

There is no vacant chair. To love is still to have.

Individual Guidance Offered To Seniors

A vocational guidance program for Seniors is being organized. Individuals may be tested on their interests, personalities, aptitudes and intelligence. Also offered is the Michigan State College Counseling Clinic test with a personal interview by professional counselors.

All Seniors interested should contact Miss Buck. S. L.

SENIORS PLAN 'HUSH-HOP' DANCE FOR FEBRUARY 17

The Seniors of Farmington High are very hard at work on the preparations for their February 17th dance, the "Hush-Hop". The name reveals that the dance will be something unusual, exciting and very different. The entertainment alone will probably introduce a completely new trend for the lower classmen's dances. But it's all "hush-hop". Also, different types of dancing will fit in with the theme.

Committee members, chairmen, and advisors for the "Hush-Hop" are as follows:

Advertising: Miss Brandenburg, advisor; Janet Wheaton, chairman; G. F. Fike, M. Weaver, M. Thomas, M. Hunt.

Refreshments: Miss McCarthy, advisor; Annie Blair, chairman; A. Miller, C. Comp, B. Kaufman.

Refreshments: T. Maatata, advisor; Marlon Petersmark, chairman; G. G. Crain, W. Mifflin, G. Culhan.

Entertainment: Miss Carley, advisor; Mary Ann Dunham, chairman; H. Higgins, R. LeMieux, J. Plum.

Decorations: D. McCarthy, advisor; Gail Malmgren, chairman; D. Thompson, R. Stephen, J. Gunnert.

Tickets: R. Hutton, advisor; Charles Welyke, chairman; J. Brown, D. Baggott, N. Rust.

ITEM - IZER

The Student Council voted at its last meeting to give sponsorship of the Carnival and Senior Faculty basketball game to the Athletic Council. The Council will present these events annually to help pay for athletic equipment and uniforms.

The Student Council approved a small donation of money to the Cerebral Palsy Fund.

The class officers and advisors of this year's Sophomore and Junior classes met February 14 and discussed the possibility of combining the J-Hop and Senior Prom for next year.

Seniors have been measured for graduation caps and gowns.

Mr. H. E. Bailey, field representative of Albion College, talked with Seniors interested in attending Albion next year in conferences held February 12.

Once every week, Michigan State College gives a radio broadcast over station WJLB on Senior Week. Well-informed persons talk on various jobs, in order to make such information available to Farmington Seniors. Mr. McCarthy will make tape recordings of the program and make them available to students.

J-HOP SHOWS FINANCIAL LOSS

The Juniors suffered a net loss of $38.50 from the J-Hop. "Nuit en Blanc" for orchestra fees, were $256.00. Receipts from 85 tickets sold were $218.00.

CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. FRED GROSE
21160 Tuck Road Telephone 2546-R

Ever see a winter stick to us like this one has? Snow, sleet, ice and zero weather - now warmer and rain - it sure is a variety and we like it. Talk about varieties, my hat is off to all those who took part in the PTA Variety Show on Saturday night. It was tops. We hope to have more of those community shows. You can't beat home talent and everyone was good. It's good to get your mind off the world conditions for a while. Doesn't seem possible that we have boys scattered all over the world again.

What is the matter with the old world? Has it gone to the dogs? Probably if everyone would remember some of the things that we learned back in Sunday School there wouldn't be wars; well - for the news.

Norman Sponeburgh left for the Navy last Thursday, and will be in Chicago for a few weeks' training. He and Joan with baby daughter just moved in their new home in Garden City the same week.

Marion Graves is home after having an appendectomy last Monday evening in Sessions Hospital, Northville.

Fred Grose, Jr. and Miss Debra Leflar attended the U. of M. J-Hop in Ann Arbor on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Waggott of Inkster entertained about 50 young people from church at a Valentine party at their home on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Cronheim of Dresden entertained her mother, Mrs. Yreedevoog of Grandville, Michigan, over the week end.

Mr. Isadore Coulter and son, Marvin, of Tuck Road, have returned home from their visit with relatives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Colburn left Saturday for a three weeks vacation in Florida.

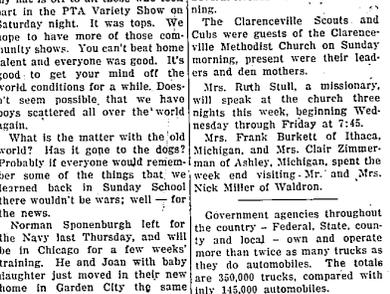

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Loren Steyer of Oxford on their 25th wedding anniversary. Several friends were in for the evening.

The Clarenceville Scouts and Caus are guests of the Clarenceville Methodist Church on Sunday morning, present were their leaders and den mothers.

Mrs. Ruth Stull, a missionary, will speak at the church three nights this week, beginning Wednesday through Friday at 7:45.

Mrs. Frank Burkett of Ithaca, Michigan, and Mrs. Clair Zimmerman of Ashley, Michigan, spent the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nick Miller of Waldron.

Government agencies throughout the country - Federal, State, county and local - own and operate more than twice as many trucks as they do automobiles. The total are 350,000 trucks, compared with only 145,000 automobiles.

Symbol of Reliability

The mortar and pestle has been the symbol of pharmacy since medieval times when it marked the shop of the apothecary. Today, it continues as the mark of a profession where responsibility to you and to your doctor has increased with the advent of new drugs, new formulas, new methods of dispensing drugs. You can rely on your Rexall Pharmacist for pinpoint accuracy as he continues the traditions of a time-honored profession.
