FARMINGTON MUSIC STUDENTS HONORED AT SOLO FESTIVAL

Three Farmington High School students won top ratings at the Solo Festival held last week at Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti, according to winners of top ratings were Sally Lint, pianist; Patricia Sowers, saxophone; and Dean Bradley, saxophone. Sally and Patricia will enter in the State Festival to be held March 21 in Ann Arbor by virtue of their ratings. Sally is a senior and Patricia is a Sophomore. Dean will not be able to enter the State Festival because he is only a fifth grader.

Students earning "II" ratings were Ruth Jones, piano, sophomore; Denis Cinnert, clarinet, freshman; Richard Bowers, saxophone, freshman; Paul Koenigs, piano, freshman; Alice Annette, flute, seventh grade; Rodney Layton, cornet, seventh grade; Fred Bending, clarinet, 6th grade. Students earning "III" ratings were Douglas Havela, Thomas Metz, Billy Rickhardt and Brian Rogers, all sixth graders and all clarinetists.

TOWNSHIP CITY BOARDS OF REVIEW TO MEET TUESDAY

The Boards of Review of Farmington City and Township will meet at separate locations on Tuesday, March 6, to inspect the assessment rolls and make any necessary adjustments brought to their attention by property owners.

Members of the Board of Review of the City of Farmington will meet in the Municipal Building at 23312 Grand River on Tuesday, March 6, and on Monday and Tuesday, March 12 and 13, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

City Charter

(Continued from Page One) water craft and seaplanes, which was obviously an error as there is no suitable body of water within the city limits. This section was deleted by the Charter Commission from the Grosse Pointe Woods charter but through error it was copied in the draft.

Efforts will be made to make the changes in the charter and return it to the Governor as soon as possible. If this can be done and the signature of the Governor is secured, the charter proposal can still be voted on by the city at the April 2 election.

Paw's Happy Agin--

You know he is just like a lost sheep when I get to allin' -- he don't git half his work done cause he's hangin' around the house all the time -- and he don't eat proper at all. But this mornin' I got up and fixed him pancakes and sausage fer his breakfast and he is really rarin' to go. Right now he's cleanin' out the chicken house. Say -- Mirandy -- you wanna be sure and git some of that pork sausage down to Conroy's. They have a 1 lb. roll of Hy-grade Brand sausage fer 39c a lb. Is your lane pretty muddy? Ours is awful bad -- but we got enuf to eat around here fer a few days so we won't have to worry. We got some of those Blue Water perch fillets and some Lake Trout fillets in the top of the refrigerator frozen so we can eat fish -- and you know they taste mighty good. They don't have hardly any bones in 'em and I like that. This Blue Water fish comes in cod and haddock fillets, too. Next time I buy fish I'm gonna try them.

Say, Mirandy, what've you gotta take to the sociable down to the school house? I gotta take sandwiches. Thought I'd make some tuna fish -- it stays so moist. They've got a sale on Breast of Chicken white meat tuna fer 49c a can at the store. You know that white meat tuna is the best you can buy. Fer them that don't like tuna I'll make some of them ground up cheese, nut and olive sandwiches. They always go over big and we can still git one of them 2 lb. packages of cheese fer 79c. Well -- Mirandy -- I can't stand here talkin' all day. I gotta set my bread and git some patchin' done. Seems like Paw's overalls are all goin' to pieces at once. They're just a mess of patches with straps over the shoulder now. Bye, Mirandy -- come over when you can.
